Peter McMahon

It is often difficult to choose one particular person who has helped a class over the years, but in our case one name clearly comes to mind: Mr. McMahon.

For two years he stuck by us as our class advisor and weathered the rough spots with us. When we were pressed for time, he'd set a deadline to get the job done, and we would get to work. When there were seemingly impossible problems to solve, his solutions were almost always immediate. And when, in our junior year, we had to set up for the Christmas Ball, had a shortage of ornaments, paper, and tape, and on top of it all the 15-foot Christmas tree kept toppling over, Mr. McMahon's steady reassurance and confidence kept us going.

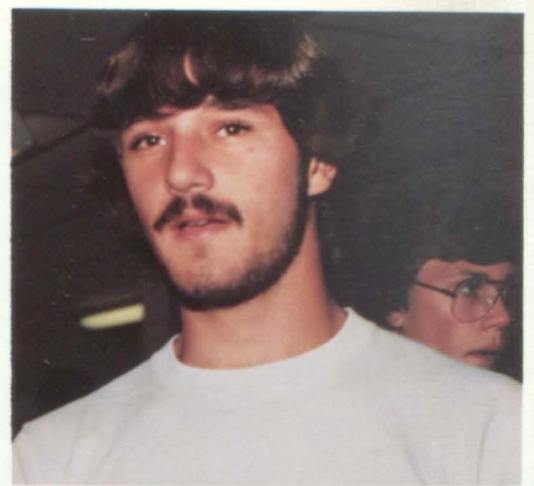

But, best of all, he always made sure that WE were taking the responsibility and making the decisions that were necessary. He was always behind us and supportive of us, willing to help, and eager to make suggestions, but he also made it clear that the final choices and the final actions belonged to us. This caring attitude gave us all a chance to work and grow together.

So, we dedicate our yearbook to you, Mr. McMahon, with thanks for all of the time you gave us, for caring enough to be involved, for your priceless organization and encouragement which kept our class from looking too bad. And, especially, thanks for being our advisor and friend.

FRESHMEN

Younger is better! We say this in the spirit of being the youngest of the young (not necessarily associated with being the lowest of the low — contrary to popular belief). The freshman class must defend itself against various snide accusations made by the upper classmen. "You're not human, you're a freshman", "They make me nauseous just being in the same room with one," "Festering carrion!" or another favorite, "Why don't you get a real boyfriend?!", and of course "You'll get here." For if we don't defend ourselves, who will??

FIELD HOCKEY

Motivation, Dedication, Determination and Coordination were the key words for the Raiderette's victorious season. Hard work paid off for another successful season.

The Raider girls had to overcome early season ankle injuries from Jane O'Connor, Erika Wiseman and Ann Appell but that didn't stop them.

The Raider girls clinched the MHAL title with a 11-1-2 record and 12-1-2 overall. The girls won the first round of sectionals against Nyack (4-1) but were defeated by Rondout Valley in the dreaded flick off (1-0). They ended their season with a 14-2-2 record.

Red Hook's fast and accurate offense swept across the field to slam in the winning goals. Its defense stopped its opposition and allowed only 4 goals in 16 games.

It was a successful season for individuals as well. They had six all stars, the most from any one team. Sheryl Gardner and Marlene "Toots" Moore made the first team. The second All Star team consisted of Kathi Jacob, Diane Wright, Jane O'Connor and Ann Appell.

The team will miss Kathi Jacob, Lynn DeMers, Erika Wiseman, co-captain Ann Appell, co-captain Jane O'Connor, and Marlene Moore as this was their last year.

The J.V. team didn't have a high winning record but it was a very young team consisting of many seventh and eighth graders. They have potential and next year they will be a tough team to beat.

This year proved very successful and next year is just as promising.

TENNIS

Professor Fisher and his school of tennis.

The 1983 Season proved to be a very good one for the Girl's Tennis Team. They pulled themselves up to a 3RD place with a 6-5 record — losses only to Ellenville, New Paltz, Onteora, and Liberty; with the help of all the girls, new and old alike.

Molly Dewsnap and Jackie Furey returned to reclaim their 2ND and 3RD singles positions (repectively) with newcomer Tracey Krawitt taking the 1ST singles position.

Chrissy Kowalski returned (after a 3 year absence) to join up with Heather Mitchell to claim the 1ST doubles position, they together managed to go all the way to the top and win the MHAL Doubles Championship. And the several different combinations of Jennifer Weiss, Erika Rosenthal and Debbie Bochdam joined to take over the 2ND doubles position.

Although not everyone played, their spirit contributed to the playing of all. Those returning were Stephanie Weiss, Anya Sacharow and Deidre Fleck. Those newcomers to the team were: Lela Bristol, Julie Hilbrandt, Monique Bruno and Leslie Carr.

We'd all like to express our appreciation to Mr. Fisher and to say Good Luck and Congratulations to the graduating seniors and the future tennis teams.

FOOTBALL

The Red Hook Football Program is back on its feet and standing tall thanks mainly to coaches Andy Seidel and Jerry Sheehan.

After a year's absence of Saturday afternoons, the hungry Raiders came back strong with a 6-3-1 overall record which included a big upset win over the defending league champs and four shutouts.

It was a team effort with every player, whether starting or substituting, giving a 110% throughout the season. Their hard work and determination paid off as they had nine players selected to all-league teams.

Next season is full of possibilities. The Raiders have established themselves as a contender and a league championship doesn't seem far away. This years team has brought pride back to Red Hook and they shall strive to reach the ultimate goal, the trophy!

Thanks go to the graduating seniors who stuck with the program when the light became dim; to the coaches and parents for all they did for us; and to all those who supported Red Hook Football!

CROSS COUNTRY

The 1983 Cross Country season was certainly an exciting one. One of the major goals set by the two teams was to win the Cider Keg at the MHAL League meet. Throughout the season the key question was always "Hey Coach! What are we gonna' put in the keg?" He would always say "We gotta win it first."

The team, which started out the season in a victorious manner, was unsure of it's capabilities. They proved to themselves and to the WORLD when they defeated Marlboro by such a wide margin that coach had to call long distance to Marlboro's side of the gap to say "Nice race guy's". The victories continued until . . . (scary music) the girls lost to rival New Paltz. The boy's new red wave, however, rolled over New Paltz which carried them on to Ashokan and the race for the keg, which they won. Much to their dismay, it couldn't be opened, so they didn't put anything in it. The girls once again lost to New Paltz and placed second in the league. The race itself was a terrible experience, but throwing coach into the lake made up for it all.

VOLLEYBALL

1983 proved to be a rewarding year for the Red Hook Volleyball teams. Varsity ended the season with a record of 16-5, finished second within the Eastern Division, and placed third in the R.H. Volleyball Classic. They won 32 sets and lost only 13; they also outscored the opponents 627-409, and averaged 28.9 points per match.

The team consisted of Co-Captain, Carolyn Hester, high scorer; Co-Captain, Sheila Rogers; Co-Captain, Tracey Leonard; Exchange Student, Rica Tinsay; Juniors, Peggy Graham, Stephanie Kilmer, Christine Melinsky, Jackie Beidl, Michelle Kirby, and Sophomore; Anne Sipperley.

J.V.'s record at the end of the season was 10-2, led by Co-Captains; Teresa Garofana, Erika Klein, and Kelly Tremper.

We would all like to thank Coach Herb Elsemore for a fine year and a well organized tournament. We wish the future volleyball teams the best of luck.

HOMECOMING

Homecoming 1983 was a more-than welcome revival of the popular tradition. To start out the weekend, there was the Homecoming dance where Kathi Jacob and Geoff King were elected king and queen. The next day, floats paraded through Red Hook showing their true spirit for the mighty Raiders. The game itself was great, despite the cold, because we won, and winning is great. To follow up all of this winning action, the seniors shut out the juniors in the Jr. VS Sr. football game, while the field hockey team defeated the football team in the newly-created "Who is the toughest?" field hockey game. The entire event was a good thing for Red Hook.

Where, Oh Where is my Top Flight?
How could I slice it off to the right?

The Red Hook Raiders of the golf course had a smashing improvement this fall season ending up in second place in their league with a record of 19 and 5; not bad considering the acute lack of practice over the summer. The team, consisting of Dave Fishman, Paul Germain, Jeff Chenkus, Tony Albano, Adam and Dan O'Neill, Mike Rodriguez, Louis Tirsch, Brian Kelly and Matt Becker, led valiantly by Pete McMahon through the wind, rain and pitas of a terrific year.

BOYS BASKETBALL

Red Hook Raider basketball is back to stay! Coach Rod Chando has produced a team respected in M.H.A.L. The Raiders this year have been a team which has suffered hard knocks. They have lost many games by one point, two points, three points; games that they may have won with better luck and more experience. They have played with the best in the league and have knocked off #1 Wallkill. The season was characterized by hardnosed-hustling defense with teamwork playing an important role as the Raiders gained respect throughout the league.

Co-Captains, Lester Olsoson and Bucky Griffin, lent experience, hard work, exciting play, and timely baskets throughout the season. Other Seniors, Bill Becker and Alex Figueroa lent their ability, leadership, and spirit to the Raider efforts. Good luck in your future endeavors, Seniors, and thanks for a great season.

Junior Erin Griffin gave offensive punch and Jim O'Dell added defense and scoring ability to the intimidating Raider front line. Mike Rogers and Jimmy Zimmerman handled the majority of the dribbling, passing and outside shooting for the Raiders offense, as well as fine defense. Juniors Peter Klose, Ernie Schnieder, Fred Christensen, and Kevin Fraleigh chipped in off the bench at crucial times during the season.

With hard work, a good crop of JV players, the return of experienced men, and the coaching of Rod Chando, the 1984-85 players will be the force with which to contend.

GIRLS BASKETBALL

Defying the odds, the Girls Varsity Basketball Team overcame dire preseason predictions to capture second place in the Mid-Hudson Athletic League. Led by captains Sheila Rogers and Carolyn Hester, the team posted an impressive 16-4 record. The year was characterized by come-from-behind contests in which victory was pulled from the jaws of defeat.

The 1983-84 team won through teamwork. A different player led the team in scoring in almost every game. For example, Tracey Leonard's six for six fourth quarter shooting saved two games, while Sheila Rogers dropped nineteen points to bury Wallkill.

Highlighting the fine season was a spectacular two-point victory over western champion Rondout Valley. Renee Monarchi's pressure foul shots put the game out of reach with twenty-one seconds to play.

Sophomores Kristen Ring and Anne Sipperley, along with freshman sensation Sara Fisher, provided the depth needed for a successful season. Peg Graham, a proven performer in pressure games, Christy Rhodes, Jody Richardson, and Minnie Durst also shared the offensive and defensive burdens.

In keeping with the Girls' Basketball tradition of excellence through hard work, this year's team has earned a section IX Nine Tournament bid.

This year's wrestling team turned out to be strong in the MHAL ranks. Although its members had to forego many breakfasts, lunches, and dinners in order to make weight, the team succeeded in attaining a 3 and 5 record. They were led by captains Kelleher, Kirby, and Singleton under the direction of Head Coach Karl Knapp. In the photo from left to right starting on top row: Coach Knapp, Scott Thetford, Frank Albano, Sal Rafael, Jay Colbrenner; Kevin Kellerhouse, John Kelleher, Tom Chenkus, Jason Daria, Matt Bartlett, Todd Richards, Jeff Kruger, Joe Morgan, Vic Taylor, Wolf Singleton, Tom Kirby, Tim Cordier, and Rob Scheuing.

WRESTLING

Wrestling carries through into the halls.

CHEERLEADERS

The football season got off to a late start again this year because of the lack of coaching personnel. But with Mr. Chando's help it turned out to be a success.

With the lack of participants in the sport the girls made the best of what they had in both the football and basketball seasons.

We would like to thank our basketball coach Debbie Perrotta for all she's done. The girls faced some difficult problems midway through the season but Coach Perrotta never gave up on us. Thank you!

GYMNASTICS

The Red Hook gymnastics this year competed on the Germantown team, for want of a coach and more participation. The team as a whole did well, compiling a record of 2-2-1. The formidable Red Hook trio of Patti Pagan on bars, Michelle Kirby on floor, vault, and beam, and Kathi Jacob all-around under the coaching of Tom Fiurello proved to be a boon for Germantown and a deadly combination against opposing teams. Although Patti, Kathi, and Michelle were not allowed to compete in the Section II competition, it was an impressive year. Congratulations, girls.

LIP SYNC

Here I am, on the road again.
Here I am, up on the stage.
Here I go, playin' star again.
Here I go, turn the page.

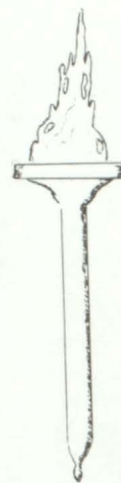

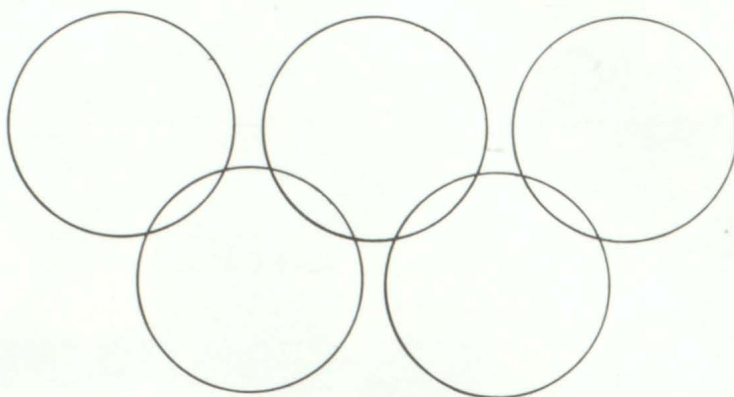

Whoever thought that the Lip Sync would become such a highly anticipated event when it was started four years ago? But the tradition lives on and this year's concert was bigger and better than ever. In fact, the acts were so good that a first place tie resulted between David Bromberg and David Bowie. STYX received a well deserved third place to round up the winners. The Senior Class would like to thank everyone who paid because we made a lot of money.

—the Management

As the storybook picture of Sarajevo, Yugoslavia rolls across the screen, we hear the introductory words of each Olympic broadcast: "Once upon a time it was a waystation for caravans between Europe and the Middle East. Now people come from all points of the compass to Sarajevo for the winter Olympics. ABC Sports presents the 14th winter Olympic games." And then the majestic Olympic overture . . .

The excitement and suspense of the games was somewhat subdued by the fact that newspaper headlines often beat the broadcasts due to the time difference. But still, Americans felt a thrill of victory and pride for their athletes.

The first medal for the United States was earned by Kitty and Peter Carruthers, a brother/sister figure skating team who skated a nearly flawless long program before ecstatically embracing each other in the middle of the ice, and bringing home a silver medal.

America's first gold was won by twenty year old skier Debbie Armstrong in the women's giant slalom competition, with a tension-filled, but beautiful second run. And, to top it all off, in that same competition American women also held second and fourth places! Christin Cooper took the silver medal, and teammate Tamara McKinney held fourth place — making a strong domination of the event by the United States team.

With a bright outlook for more medals for the United States, especially in the figure skating events, we decided to join the Olympic spirit and honor our own athletes in Red Hook.

The coaches of each team chose the athlete who they felt most deserved this special recognition. Congratulations to our own Olympians from Red Hook High School.

BASEBALL

"The Team Comes Alive"

The Red Hook Varsity Baseball team came alive under first year coach Richard King. Coach King showed the team how to have a good attitude about themselves. With this new attitude the Raiders had a 10 and 10 record. The Raiders have basically the same team returning. Some returnees are Tony Albano, Geoff King, Adam O'Neill, Wolf Singleton, and Rob Ward. The Raiders are hoping for a successful season this year. Best of luck.

SOFTBALL

The Red Hook Raiders varsity softball team once again put in a fine performance. Behind the pitching of senior Debbie Newland, the Raiders advanced to beat previously-undefeated Ellenville for the M.H.A.L. title. Following that, Red Hook advanced far into the sectionals until their defeat to Pearl River. Rounding out the outfield were seniors Melanie Coon, Dee Leonard, plus Ann Appell, and Christy Rhodes. The tightly-played infield consisted of Tracy Dober, Missy Coons, Jane O'Connor, Peggy Graham, senior Tracy Borrromeo, and a few others. We will miss Borrromeo's antics and Dee's ducks while looking forward to another brilliant season this spring.

BOYS' TRACK

It was a very gratifying year in Red Hook Track and Field. The Boy's team re-established a place in the league. It gave notice to other league members that Red Hook will be a force to contend with next year. The attitude of the team was good but with a little more luck and a few more wins it will get better. However, it seemed all we ever ran in was cold, wet, cloudy, dreary days. We had a total of three nice days to have meets. It was a frustrating year between shin splints, injuries, and the good old common cold. Hopefully, next year will be warm, healthy, and free from injury.

I would like to take this opportunity to thank all the athletes for the hard work and dedication they gave to the coaches this year. A coach is only as good as the members he has on his teams, and you young ladies and gentlemen were a pleasure to coach. Yes, I know there were times you wanted to "give up" or "put an end" to us coaches, but you did not. You hung with it and performed admirably throughout the season. I know there were times, we asked people to run races they did not want to; but they did for the sake of the team. It is these times, we as coaches would like to stand up and say "thank you" publicly.

We hope everyone enjoyed their year in Track, and hope to see you all back next year (except for the Seniors) To the Seniors — a special thanks for the last four years with all the Ups and Downs, Good times, Bad, I give my warmest appreciation and love. Remember you'll never be forgotten (in Track) here in R.H.C.S.

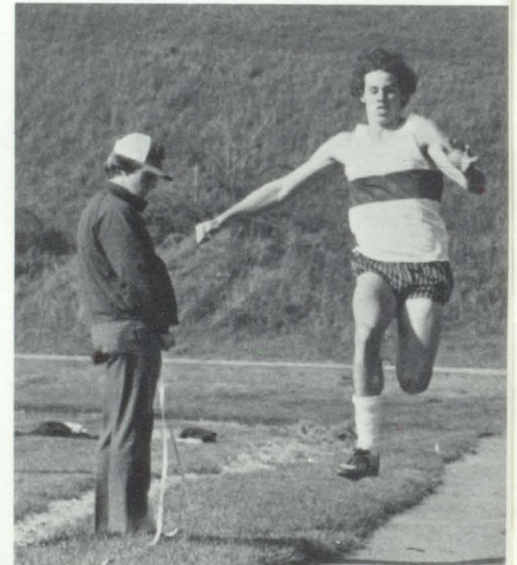

Yours in Pain,

Raise your hand if you're sure.

The race to the ice cream truck!

What a GRAND season! Because of all the new-found talent, Red Hook girls' track proved to be threatening to the other teams in the area. The girls were strong in some areas, but weaker in others. This lack of depth was a major setback, but by using the timeless quote of Coach Elsemore ("If you really want it, you can do it. It's 99 percent attitude and 1 percent talent. C'mon now, I know you want it.") which, when repeated at sunrise five times daily while facing New Paltz, many a meet was won. The season's record was 9-2.

BAND

Where the heck are you?

The trumpet section falls apart.

Heather Mitchell

This year's band, under the direction of Martin Tirsch, is made of a majority of young members. Although the band is made up of individual talents, we are a group of people whose talents weave together producing outstanding music. This talent was evident in our successful Christmas concert.

This year the stage band, also, is continuing to entertain with jazz and pop tunes.

Heidi Klein and Eric Schreiber displayed their talents at this year's Area All-State. Musicians from Dutchess, Putnam, and Columbia counties participated in a concert on Saturday afternoon after rehearsing together only two days.

The other members of the band displayed their talents as the band travelled to Pearl River, New York for an exchange concert. The band earned money for their trip through their second magazine drive and lasagna dinner.

Another successful year in music has ended but we will be here next year providing musical entertainment for all.

CHORUS

Secretary Deirdre takes attendance.

Under the direction of Mrs. Amy Goldsmith, the 1983-84 chorus is continuing the fine musical standards displayed in previous years.

Members of this year's chorus travelled to Poughkeepsie High School to participate in the vocal portion of Area All-State. These members were Kathy Leonard, Deirdre Fleck, Debbie Zinnanti, Hillary Brooks, and Jean Rodriguez.

Other members of the chorus displayed their talents in swing choir. Swing choir is a group of select students performing jazz and pop tunes.

Selling of posters this year proved to be a very successful fund raiser. The chorus would like to use the money raised to go to the theater.

Singing together, our musical year has ended on a high note.

EXCHANGE STUDENTS

I want to tell all of you that I had a great time here. I really like Red Hook. I want to thank my dearest, great and wonderful sister. And to all my friends, to everyone who listened to my mumbling and tried very hard to understand and help me, I hope you will remember me and Israel. I think I made enough noise. Shalom, Shalom for all of you. It was great with you but now good-bye shalom.

Love you all,
and thousands of Israeli kisses,
Eynat.

There is no better way to describe Red Hook but to say that it is the best thing that ever happened to me. It will always have it's own place in my heart where it had made me learn to love and live. I will never say good-bye to Red Hook; good-byes are meant only for those who have no special moments and experiences worth remembering. And to Red Hook I say, "Thank you, until I comeback."

Love,
Rica C. Tinsay

Tena Koe,

Even though I have only been here in Red Hook for 2 weeks I have enjoyed myself so much and have met so many nice people that I wonder why I didn't come here sooner! The interest and acceptance that you have expressed towards me has made my introduction to Red Hook High School a good one. I can see that my last 6 months here in America are going to be ones full of memories, in which you will all be included. I have learned a lot about America and even though our cultures are very similar I have experienced a lot of things that are "Typically American".

Thank you Red Hook, for making my AFS year a success — I will never forget any of you.

NEWSPAPER

This year there were only four people on the newspaper staff. They were as follows: Patti Pagan, editor, Tracy Thetford, Christine Hopp, Robin Zenlinkey, and Jodi Bulson. Everyone worked very hard. It took a lot of dedication and patience to do everything that was needed to be done. Everyone had to give up a lot of their free time to get their interviews, look up facts, and to do all the typing needed. Everyone did a great job, thanks to Mrs. Kreider-Mueller who gave us advice and kept us on the right track.

MATH LEAGUE

This year, the Continental Math League is in a new division; the Pythagorean Division. This scholarly group of students competes with other schools, State and nation-wide. The team has many members, but some mentionable regulars are Jody Bulson, Chucky Goodwin, Michael Rodriguez, Ann Salvatico, Regina Spagnoli, and Louis Tirsch. So far, the Continental Math League of Red Hook High has done well at all of the meets.

QUIZ BOWL

Red Hook's Quiz Bowl competitive assemblage initiated its period of emulation in a laggard manner, capitulating to Cocksackie-Athens. Henceforth, we have been successful in the maintenance of an indefectible record, having subjugated Rhinebeck by well-nigh 200 points. Under the gnostic and sagacious counsel of advisor John Fish and the well-earned, but dubious captaincy of Christopher Sparks, Red Hook's erudite and noble conglomeration of delegates to the "Scholastic Match-up" aspires to assert itself among the prestigious ranks of its league, and ultimately execute the acquisition of the championship. Members include Alex Kahn, Chris Blatchley, Dan O'Neill, Dave Fishman, Sue Fisher, Cynthia Gurnee, Gretchen Gilbert, Gary Oliver, and Mark Flynn.

SUMMER TRIPS TO EUROPE

Spain, a land of medieval castles, sweltering flatlands, and fine art is no longer a mystery to those fortunate students who spent a month there. A cool beer, an horchata, and a dip in the pool were the only reliefs from the dry heat which perpetrated the country. There was no rain. For the most part, however, the movies, discos, and quaint cafés dominated the more bearable climate of the nightlife. Some students ventured to distant parts of Spain for various reasons, but most remained in the beautiful city of Madrid touring, travelling, and having a thoroughly unforgettable time.

D.W.O

Did you happen to notice that between August 2nd and August 25th that fourteen Red Hook German Students accompanied by Mrs. Kreider-Muller were missing? Wo waren sie??? In Germany of course! This was the time during which the Red Hook-Isernhagen school exchange program was completed.

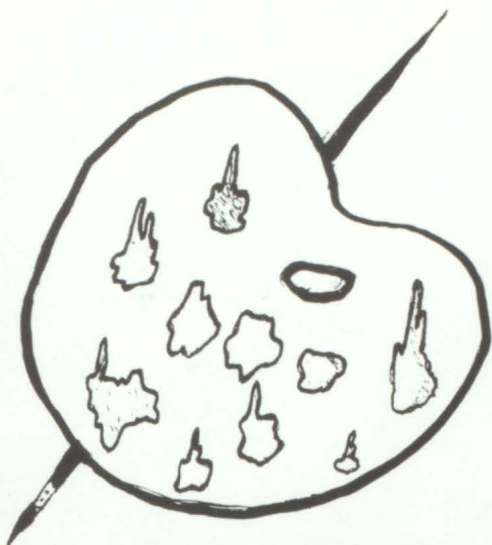

For 3½ weeks, the following students attended school and lived with German families in Isernhagen, West Germany: Chrissy Seifert, Patti Pagan, Mary Thulen, Heidi Klein, Bob Lutz, Paul Peterson, Tracy Thetford, Elizabeth Durst, Robert Ward, Veronica LaPierre, Phil Russo, John Oja, Amy Wright, and Lori Murray.

Among the activities most enjoyed were: a trip to Munich, a sightseeing visit to the wall separating East and West Germany, a tour of a West German Military base, many hot afternoons on the Kirchhorst See (lake), one too many liters of beer at the Hofbräuhaus, and above all savoring the taste of German Schokolade!

Soaps are going strong as Laura returns to General Hospital. TV mini-series like "The Winds of War" and "The Thornbirds" were hot. The controversial TV movie "The Day After", which dealt with a nuclear holocaust, made us sit up and take notice of the harsh reality of nuclear war.

SONG AND DANCE:

The Lip Sync attested to the fact that music has many big names right now, although jazz and music from the sixties is popular, too. And break dancing has moved from the city streets to the public eye, with fascinating moves like the dance world has never seen before.

MEGA FADS!

The valley Vernacular was really grody to the max, but what really made us gag with a spoon was like those Cabbage Patch Dolls, which sold like gold bars at Christmas time. Some said they were adorable. Others said they were ugly as sin! At the same time the world of music took on a new dimension with videos: films made by the performers to their music, including a full length video, "Thriller", by superstar, Michael Jackson. Other Fads? Plastic pop beads, polkadotted fingernails, computer break-ins, weightlifting, and dieting on desserts!

SPORTS

The 14th Winter Olympics were held in Sarajevo, Yugoslavia, the L.A. Raiders won the Superbowl, and locally the RED HOOK Field Hockey team and the Boys' Cross-Country team each won their respective M.H.A.L. titles.

YEARBOOK

From the thick mire of deadlines, bottomless abyss of paper work, and the dense fog of thought emerges a group of people that, over the past months, have shaped and created something that all of us will consider important in summing up the activities of the previous school year. They are the Year Book Staff (and no, that's not a stick to walk with). Although it was hard work, we agree that it was well worth the effort. From all of us responsible for this Year Book, enjoy each caption, every candid, and all the funk it has to offer.
