

Bard College to Purchase Property of Ward Manor

Special to The New York Times

ANNANDALE-ON-HUDSON, N. Y., June 9 — Bard College will buy the remaining Ward Manor property adjoining its campus, Dr. Reamer Kline, president of the college, announced today.

The title transfer is expected to take place early this summer.

The property, which will be sold by the Community Service Society of New York, consists of two large institutional buildings, one of 40 and one of 60 rooms, together with a gate house, lesser shop buildings and 80 acres.

Bard plans to use the new facilities primarily for student dormitories and faculty housing.
Ward Manor has been operated by the Community Service Society for 30 years as a home for the aged. The society is terminating this operation.
