

Were Wed in Ceremony at Po'keepsie Church Rectory

Miss Katherine R. Hoch, daughter of Mr and Mrs Otto Hoch, 17 Hoffman Avenue, Poughkeepsie, and Irving Allan Fraleigh, son of Mr and Mrs Irving P. Fraleigh this village, were married Sunday, December 26th. The ceremony took place at 3 o'clock in the afternoon with the Rev. Peter P. Conaty officiating, at Holy Trinity church rectory, Poughkeepsie.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attended by her cousin Miss Marie Spinski, Poughkeepsie, as maid of honor. Clifford Moore, this village was Mr Fraleigh's best man and Kenneth Spinski, Poughkeepsie, cousin of the bride, ushered.

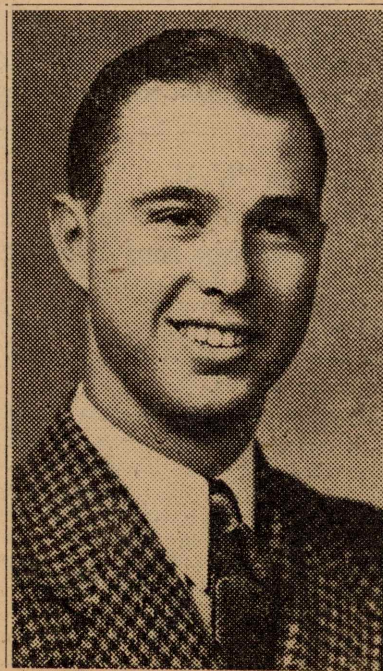

There was a reception after the ceremony at Vassar Alumnae House. The couple plan to make their home here where Mr Fraleigh is associated with his father in operating a fruit and dairy farm.

Mrs Fraleigh, a graduate of Poughkeepsie High school, is also an alumna of the New York State College for Teachers, Albany, and received her Master of Arts degree from Columbia University. She is now a teacher at the Red Hook Central school.

Mr Fraleigh, a Red Hook High school graduate, attended Cornell University.

MRS IRVING A. FRALEIGH

IRVING A. FRALEIGH

Engagement Of Well Known Couple Announce

MISS KATHERINE HOCH

IRVING P. FRALEIGH

Mr and Mrs Otto Hoch, 17 Hoffman Avenue, Poughkeepsie, announce engagement of their daughter, Katherine Regina Hoch, to Irving Allan Fraleigh, son of Mr and Mrs Irving P. Fraleigh of this village.

Miss Hoch is a graduate of New York State College for Teachers and received her Master degree from Columbia University. She is at present a member of the faculty of the Red Hook Central school. Mr Fraleigh attended Cornell University and is associated with his father in business.