Dear Mr. Mead

You have wondered why you did not hear from me - doubtless. I can only plead that I have been busy. I would often think to write then just let it off.

We have been putting on an addition on our house - making a bath room etc. and are not yet cleaned up.

The trees are showing up quite well. They blossomed profusely and of most varieties there is a good set - ~~to~~ am disappointed in Jonathans however the famous orchard is not fruiting well, The little Jonathans had a fine training and are quite shapely.

The spraying job was made thoroughly and it will pay - as troublesome insects are this year quite under control It is now thinning time and we must fall to it - I wish - if possible - to accomplish more and better work than heretofore in this direction, I am to tell the truth getting anxious to see you — along with the rest of us among the trees.

But there still remains for the present at least the same old disadvantage for you — the board questions — I have a sort of plan in my mind for later — which may be desirable.
As to the spray questions — I think there will no disagreement between us — I have also a business plans for the winter.

Hoping to hear from you soon I am Yours truly
