The Churches of Red Hook

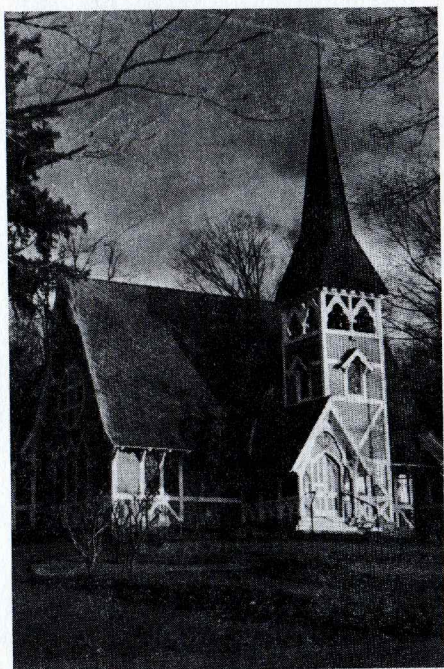

The Christian Churches in Red Hook and Tivoli extend their greetings to you and invite you to join them in the worship of the one God whom we serve together.

The witness of the Christian community in this area resembles a chorus: each voice contributes to and blends with the others to present a rich and full tone of worship. The churches listed in this pamphlet represent a variety of traditions and backgrounds. This variety enriches the Christian witness and provides a greater opportunity for participation in the common worship. During the year many occasions bring us together for special programs in a true spirit of ecumenicity. You will find a splendid spirit of cooperation between the churches.

We invite you to join the common worship by participating in the life of any one of our churches, and through it to add your voice to the greater chorus of all the people of Christ in this area.
