The committee chosen by our President to draft suitable expression of this Society for the long and efficient services of our retired President Mr Thomas Elmendorf report their work completed and offer the following testimonial

We the members of the Red Hook Society for the detection of horse thieves desire to place on record a sense of the deep loss which we have sustained by the resignation of our President. Thomas Elmendorf who after presiding at our meetings and acting as our executive for the past seventeen years has seen fit to sever that connection by the refusal of a unanimous re-election. His name in itself is one of the few direct links connecting the past with the present history of this Association. A name which shall ever be to us a synonym for integrity and uprightness.

We desire also to express our thanks to him for the careful and conscientious manner in which he has always administered the affairs of this society after sacrificing his own personal convenience and comfort to promote its welfare and prosperity

We also tender him our unbounded sympathy in the affliction which renders him unwilling to serve us longer as president and our sincere wish that he may speedily recover to continue with us in active membership for many years to come

One hundred years has passed since this Society was organized we can hardly realize the difference between Red Hook and the surroundings then and now. But judging from the response to the call to organize a Society for the protection of themselves against Horse Thieves. we have a reason to believe that a Society of that kind was much needed. We find from our minutes that 63 Persons responded to the call we find many familiar names on that list. and quite a number of their descendence are on our present list of members. Such as. The Lewis. Elmendorf. Pitchers. Fellers. Praters Phillips. Stickles Moore & Allendorf

The first meeting was held on Oct 10th 1796 and Isaac Stoutenburg Jr - was. Chairman. Hendricks. Benner Treasurer. G. B. Van Ness - Secy - Those persons were elected at the meeting to their respective offices

They record as the object of their meeting and organization in these words. In order to prevent Horse Stealing and detecting Horse Thieves. and for the recovering of Stolen Horses. we the subscribers do hereby agree to the following rules.
