Dear Sir,,

This is to inform you that one of the girls raised at St Margaret's Home for Girls, has passed away. Her name is Catherine Elizabeth White. I am enclosing a copy of her obituary to add to the records.

If any of the other girl's or their daughters contact you I would be delighted to hear from them. My mother had many friends that she made while there, and talked about thur the years.

She especially enjoyed her visit back in 1996. It was a thrill for all of us. You have a beautiful church.
Thank you for all of your kindness.

Sincerely,

Mrs. Betty Harrison

10/29/95

She was moved a couple of times,
and finally ended up in St. Margaret's Home for Girls in Red Hook. (Placed by father).
She stayed here until she was almost 18.

I was hoping to locate the records from St. Margaret's, looking for clues about her family.

We don't even know where her mother was buried.

Her father worked as a farm hand - possibly owned by a Weaver.

My mother will be 92 in April.
I would love to be able to find some information on her family.

Any suggestions would be greatly appreciated.

Thank you.

Sincerely,

Betty Harrison

Dear Mrs. Coons,

I'm not really sure that I'm writing to the right person, but hopefully you might point me in the right direction.

My mother Catherine Elizabeth White was born in Red Hook in 1904, April 3 to George P. White and his wife Lillian (or Lily) Foxick.
The 1900 census lists them in Columbia
Co., Town of Hallatin.

Around 1909 Lillian died in child birth leaving Mary (1894), Claude (1896), Francis (1900), Catherine (1904) and Harry.
The children were placed in private homes, as workers by their father. My mother never saw her brothers & sisters again.
