Letter to: James Wood, President
Grand Union Company
Elmwood Park, New Jersey 07407

Purpose of letter: To go on record that you, as an individual, or as a representative of an organization or body of government, support the efforts of the Friends of the Elmendorph Inn, which has recently been incorporated as a non-profit agency, whose intent it is to restore the Inn (the oldest in the Village of Red Hook), and put it to community use. This will include the storage of historical materials relating to the community.

The Grand Union Company owns the building and it is hoped that they will cooperate with the Friends of Elmendorph, Inc. in obtaining this property so that most of the money raised by the community can be put into the restoration of the building.

The main purpose of the letter is to let them know that the community backs this project.

The Friends of the Elmendorph Inn is a branch of the Red Hook/Tivoli Bicentennial Committee, and would appreciate having a copy of your letter. Our Mailing address is P.O. Box 1776, Red Hook, New York 12571
