272:—A Picturesque Scene from Prospect Park, Niagara Falls

This singularly beautiful and most impressive view of the entire perspective of the Falls gives a good impression of the irregular contour of the cataract, which, although divided by Goat Island, is essentially a single torrent, exhibiting the complete volume of the flow of the Niagara River.

Have got to the Falls in my picnic dandy.
Tip. Leave for New Baldy
tomorrow (Thursday) Nice try and drive over to see you one day
next week.
Sincerely,
John & Grace Stewart
