

Church members recognized

HONORING MEMBERS WHO HAVE BEEN MEMBERS FOR FIFTY YEARS OR LONGER

On Sunday, June 10th, ¹⁹⁸⁴ at the 10:30 am. worship service, the church council and the congregation will honor members of long standing in our congregation. Sixteen people have belonged to St. Paul's for fifty years or longer and will be recognized at a special service that day. Those being honored are Irving Fraleigh, Margaret Stockenberg, Hannah Sturges, Margaret Smith, Mildred Coon, Verna Lasher, Pearl Burnett, Jennie Loweth, Dorothy Tremper, Flora Teats, Anna Platner, Alice Scism, Marguerite Snyder, Paul Smith, Alvie Battenfeld, and Leola Coutant. Some were baptized at St. Paul's, some joined at Confirmation, and others came by letter of transfer, but all have been with us for fifty years or more. After the special service, there will be a coffee hour hosted by the church council for the honorees. We certainly hope that the congregation will be there that day to greet these long time members.
