

10/7/98

Jane F. Fenner, kindergarten teacher

Jane F. Fenner, 88, a Poughkeepsie resident, died Monday at home.

She was a kindergarten teacher for Poughkeepsie, Pine Plains and Red Hook schools for 40 years before retiring.

Mrs. Fenner was a parishioner of St. Paul's Lutheran Church in Red Hook.

She was a graduate of Drew Seminary in Carmel, Beaver College in Beaver, Pa., and received her teaching degree from Columbia University in New York City.

Born May 3, 1910, in Red Hook, she was a daughter of Irving and

Mrs. Fenner

Mary Downing Fraleigh.

She married Donald L. Fenner on Aug. 23, 1942, in Red Hook. Mr. Fenner died Oct. 8, 1997.

Survivors include a son, Richard Fenner of Poughkeepsie; a daughter, Donna Thompson of Rome, Oneida County; a brother, Irving A. Fraleigh of Red Hook; three grandchildren; nieces and nephews.

Calling hours are 9:30 to 11:30 a.m. Saturday at Schoonmaker Funeral Home, 73 S. Hamilton St., Poughkeepsie.

Services are at noon Saturday at St. Paul's Lutheran Church, with the Rev. James Gunn officiating.

Burial will be in the family plot in St. Paul's Cemetery, Red Hook.

*You must have seen the light of Daddy shining bright
And so God said, "Come home now, your work on Earth is done."
And so you went and left us all alone.*

*Our hearts are heavy
Our tears are many
We wonder how to bear this cross so heavy*

*We'll miss your tender touch
Your gift of gab
Your endless love and moral support.*

*That we will miss all this is true
But you gave us something that shall see us through;
You gave us family; in our hearts, your spirit will live eternally.
Love, Donna and Rick*