Many trials, such as taking pictures and meeting publisher's deadlines, are included in the task of publishing a yearbook such as this 1963 Hardscrabble. As you read this book, we sincerely hope that you will consider it a worthy representation of life in Red Hook Central School as we have known it.

Split sessions have been a trial to not only the students, but the teachers as well. This situation, however, is soon to be relieved as future classes occupy the new junior-senior high school. As the last class to graduate from the old school, we know that we will always look back with pleasure on our four high school years.

THE EDITORS

Dedication

MR. and MRS. DONALD BROOKS

No class is able to achieve its goals or fulfill its obligations without the aid of firm guidance. As we, the class of 1963, take leave of Red Hook Central, we wish to thank Mr. and Mrs. Donald Brooks, who have provided us with this valuable assistance throughout our high school years. To you, Mr. and Mrs. Brooks, we respectfully dedicate this 1963 Hardscrabble.

In Memoriam

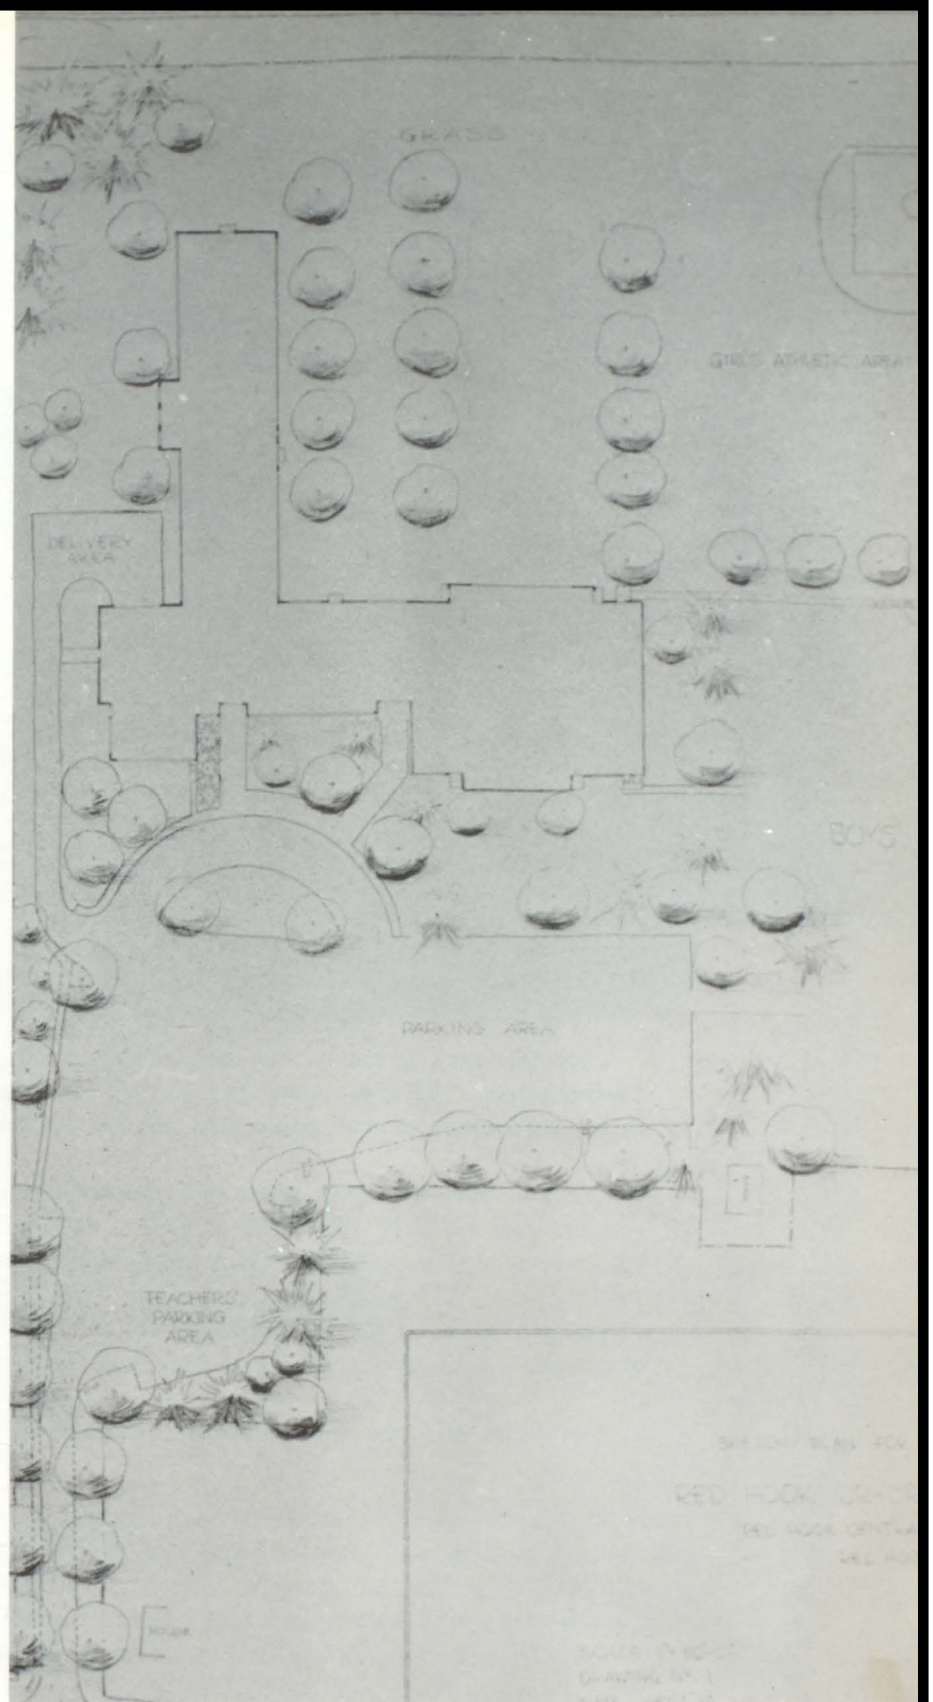

MISS RUBY B. AIKEN

Enthusiasm was felt wherever her teaching reached. A disciplined intelligence and the ability to create continued interest in all those who entered the wide horizon of her classes made her respected as both a teacher and a person.

"With a cheery smile, and a wave of the hand,
She has wandered into an unknown land,
And left us dreaming how very fair
It needs must be, since she lingers there."

James Whitcomb Riley

Principal's Message

Congratulations to one of the outstanding graduating classes of Red Hook Central School. The many scholastic, athletic, and musical honors you have earned are a credit to you, your school and your community.

The four years you have spent on half-sessions have been trying ones for you and your teachers. However, in spite of these difficulties, we feel that you have gained the necessary skills and knowledge to insure future success.

Congratulations to your Yearbook staff and Mr. Robert Barrett. The quality of this publication reflects the fine achievement of your class.

Best wishes from the entire staff for success in all your future endeavors.

Board of Education

The members of the Board of Education are the elected representatives of the voters of the district. With the guidance of the professional staff, they set down the policies which will govern the operation of our school. They assume the final responsibility for the education of every child in the district. It is through their efforts that we are able to enjoy educational opportunities that are not available to many students today.

Alma Mater

Alma Mater, Red Hook Central
 We are singing now to thee;
 May thy fair name dwell forever
 In our fondest memory.
 And when high school days are over,
 And we leave this school so dear,
 We will love thee yet,
 We'll ne'er forget the best school far or near.
 Hail, Alma Mater,
 We cheer with all our might;
 We will sing thy praise
 Through endless days,
 To the Scarlet and the White.
