Home and Vicinity.

The amount of town allowances assessed upon this town this year is $6,431.90.

Nine foxes were killed in the town of Red Hook the past year, for which the town pays nine dollars.

The annual congregational visit to the pastor of the M. E. Church, Rev. D. Phillips, will be held at the parsonage, on Wednesday evening, Dec. 20th. All are cordially invited.

The Skimmellon Band was out in full force Wednesday night of last week to serenade Mr. & Mrs. E. Jackson on their return from the M. E. Parsonage, where they were married.

Mr. Richard Lewis, of Cruger's Island, was in town Monday looking hale and hearty. He recently returned from his native country where he went about six weeks ago to visit his aged mother.

The Catholic fair at Barrytown, which closed on Wednesday evening last proved a grand success, everything connected with it having passed off in the most satisfactory manner.

Miss Ivy Matteson, of Denver, Colorado, a niece of Rev. Dr. Luckenbach, is attracting attention throughout that state as a singer. She is but seventeen years of age and critics who have heard her voice predict a brilliant future for her.

The death of Mr. J. Louis Gale, formerly of this village, occurred at his residence in Philmont on Thursday last, after a brief illness of typhoid fever, aged 49 years. His remains were interred at Rhinebeck on Saturday.

Mrs. Wm. C. Cooper, of Upper Red Hook, who for the past month has been at the Roosevelt hospital, New York, returned last week and is at present at the residence of her sisters, the Misses Tompkins. We learn that her condition is not improved.

The Cantata given last week by the choir of the M. E. Church, assisted by others, was largely attended, and was rendered in a manner that showed the result of much practice and careful training on the part of those having the matter in charge. It was something new and novel here, and was duly appreciated by the audience. The receipts were $86.

There was a large gathering at the Lutheran church Thursday evening last, to witness the marriage of Mr. Philip H. Henion and Miss Ida E. Schryver. Rev. Philip H. Cole, uncle of the groom, performed the ceremony, after which the happy couple left on the evening train for Schenectady, to return one week later to the home of his parents where a reception was held.

A quiet home wedding occurred at the residence of Mr. & Mrs. F. G. Fraleigh, on Thursday last, when their daughter, May C. Fraleigh, was united in marriage with Mr. Harry J. Magee. The ceremony was performed by Rev. D. Phillips in the presence of the immediate friends of the bride and groom, and a few invited guests. After the ceremony and congratulations, a beautiful collation was served, after which the newly married couple departed for their home at Lynn, Mass.

The late Edward Martin.

We are again called upon to chronicle the demise of another of our oldest and most highly respected citizens. Mr. Edward Martin died on Sunday morning last at the old homestead adjoining this village, where he was born Feb. 18th, 1811. He was one of a family of eleven children, ten sons and one daughter. One brother, Henry G. Martin, aged 90 years, survives him. Mr. Martin started out early in life to seek his fortune, and well did he succeed. He became a civil engineer, and assisted in laying out many railroads in this country. He purchased large tracts of land in the west which became very valuable. While a boy in the employ of the West Point Foundry Company he helped build the famous John Bull engine lately on exhibition at the World's Fair. He located the Hudson River Railroad from Albany as far south as Hyde Park. At one time he was superintendent of the old Galena and Chicago Union Railroad, and was the first President of the Rhinebeck and Connecticut Railroad. Mr. Martin was strongly attached to the old stone house in which he was born, and in later years evinced liberality to the churches in this vicinity. He paid for an enlargement of the cemetery and lands of the Reformed Church at Upper Red Hook, and procured for it a very fine organ. He directed and paid for a "renascence" of the Shookville M. E. Church, in the town of Milan, he subscribed liberally toward the erection of St. Paul's Lutheran Church in this village, and at the end lifted the congregation from the balance of the debt incurred giving in all not less than $5,000. He also made great improvements to Sylvania Lutheran Chapel at Barrytown. Recently he became the chief reliance of the M. E. Church in this village in their effort to erect a new church edifice, and it is believed he has paid and provided to be paid to it a like sum of about $5,000. He was liberal in years past to the Episcopal Church in this village, and continued his support to St. Peter's Lutheran (Stone) Church, and some years ago he established and has supported a Kindergarten School in this village. Many of his acts of charity were comparatively unknown. These matters it is true, were done out of large and ample means and resources, yet that the same were done, evinces a spirit above dogmatism, and such evangelical and broad views as advance the interests of society. His self culture, his reading, and his meeting throughout many years with men of affairs, brought to him refined culture and address, and made him a figure of whom the foremost of our community were proud to own as a native citizen. The funeral took place from his late residence on Wednesday and was largely attended. His remains were interred in the cemetery of the Reformed church at Upper Red Hook.

The Pokeysie Eagle says that the "grip" is again cropping out in that city in a different form. It affects the eyes, head and muscles.

The snowstorms of Saturday night and Tuesday morning extended over a large section of country, and made fine sleighing in this section.

The Eve. World announces that Mr. Sheridan Shook, of this town, has become the proprietor of the Morton house, in N. Y. city.

Last Friday night thieves visited the premises of John Bowman, a farmer in the town of Stanford, and butchered a fat steer and two sheep, carrying the meat away leaving the hide of the steer and pelts of the sheep lying in the field.

"Anita's Trial, or Our Girls in Camp," will be the subject of an interesting entertainment to be given by the young ladies of Upper Red Hook, in Academy Hall, Friday evening, Dec. 15th, at half past seven. Admission 25 cts.

A grand fair and festival under the auspices of the congregation of the Lutheran Church of this village, will be held in the chapel, Thursday and Friday evenings, Dec. 21st and 22d. A variety of fancy and useful articles suitable for Christmas gifts will be offered for sale, and a hot goose, duck and turkey supper will be served. Everybody will be made welcome at this grand moonlight festival. Admission free. Supper 50 cents.

ROCK CITY.—Miss Mary Davis, spent Thanksgiving in Brooklyn. Messrs. C. B. Corawell and C. A. Coons, of Fonda, have been the guests of friends in this place. Mr. & Mrs. Henry Stickle and daughter accompanied by Mrs. S. Stall all of Jackson Corners visited at J. G. Schultz's last week. Miss Rose Schantz, is spending awhile in Highland. Miss Maud Traver of Eightymile visited in this vicinity recently. Mrs. E. Oldroyd, Mrs. David Tipple, and daughter all spent a very delightful time with friends at Maple Glen Cottage the other day. Will Davis has returned from Staatsburgh. Irving Eightmy is sojourning with relatives down the river for awhile. There has been several dinner and tea parties of late and those who attended the wedding and the concert are very much elated. The city fathers are on the lookout for a gang of thieves that have been at work on the suburbs of this place. Last week among those who were robbed were Lawrence Cotter who had fifteen turkeys, Westley Pink who had eight turkeys, Rush Morehouse, who had five turkeys and Charlie Schryver who had fifty chickens stolen. This place was represented at the recent regatta examination in Rhinebeck. The reception at Mr. & Mrs. Rush Morehouse, in honor of Mr. & Mrs. Nat. Morehouse was a brilliant affair. The veterans are talking about "an awful" hard winter and the fact seems to rejoice the boys. The Rev. Mr. Childley was present to address the people on temperance last Sunday evening but as this place is inhabited by fair weather christians and it was a stormy evening not many heard him.

RED HOOK, DEC. 5TH, 1893.
The following preamble and resolutions were unanimously adopted by the official board of the Methodist Episcopal Church on Monday evening.

WHEREAS—Under the inscrutable providence of God, this official board has suffered an irreparable loss in the death of Mr. Edward Martin, therefore,
Resolved—That we do hereby express our high appreciation of the special interest which he manifested in the welfare of our Church enterprise which is now nearing completion. The proof of this interest is the special interest which he manifested in the building fund; also by the gift of an elegant bell which has been placed in position; and by presenting to the Trustees a deed for the property, situated across the street east from the Church, which is to be used for Church sheds, and who by his wise counsel and timely suggestions has in many ways advanced the interests of our Church.

RESOLVED—Also that a copy of these resolutions be inscribed on the official records of the Church.

B. S. HUTCHINGS, Sec'y of Board.
