Alice J. Watkins, 58, bear collector

LORAIN — Alice J. Watkins (nee Rahrig), 58, of Lorain, died Sunday, Aug. 26, 2001, after being stricken at her home.

She was born Feb. 12, 1943, in Lorain. She graduated in 1961 from Lorain High School and attended Lorain County Community College.

Mrs. Watkins was employed in the food and restaurant industry throughout Lorain County. She had most recently been on staff at DeLuca's Place in the Park, Lorain, and at the Farmer Boy Restaurant, South Amherst. Mrs. Watkins had also previously been employed as secretary to the dean at Arizona University.

She enjoyed reading (especially periodicals), crocheting and bingo. She had also found great enjoyment from baby-sitting. She was well known for her extensive teddy bear collection.

Survivors include her daughter, Tammy L. Watkins of Sheffield Township; sisters Donna A. Rodriguez and Florence Zuffa, both of Lorain and Marylyne Brown of Elyria. She was preceded in death by her parents, Lawrence and Mary (nee Matejick) Rahrig.

Friends may call Wednesday from 4 p.m. until time of service at 7 p.m. at Gluvna-Shimo-Hromada Funeral Chapel, 3224 Broadway, Lorain. Private burial will take place in Calvary Cemetery, Lorain.
