

Gerald "Jerry" Fulton

LORAIN – Gerald "Jerry" Fulton, age 67, a lifelong resident of Lorain, died on Thursday, June 16, 2011 at his home following a lengthy illness.

He was born on November 7, 1943 to Katherine (nee Nemec) and the late Fern Fulton. He graduated from Lorain High School. He danced with a Hungarian Dance Club that toured all over the United States and Canada while he was in high school. Jerry worked as a chef and dining room manager for 23 years at McGarvey's Restaurant in Vermilion. He had also previously worked at Aqua Marine as a dining room manager and at DeLuca's Place in the Park for 10 years as a chef. He enjoyed flower arranging, decorating and cooking.

He is survived by his life partner, Thomas E. Thomas; and his mother, Katherine "Katie" Fulton of Lorain.

Private memorial services were held for the family.
