From left, Lutonya McDowell, 19, Deyontae Phillips, 17, Brandon Byrd, 18, and Carvall Miles, 22, sit on their front stoop Friday in Benton Harbor, Mich., where there are few summer recreation programs or facilities. Gov. Jennifer Granholm announced the appointment of a task force Friday to examine the underlying issues that fueled the riots that erupted here two weeks ago after Terrance Shurn, a young black man, crashed his motorcycle while fleeing police from a neighboring township.

Kotlowitz says he was surprised the riots happened now.
