

Linda L. Zadorozny, 50, enjoyed crafts

LORAIN — Linda L. Zadorozny (nee Mishak), 50, of Lorain, died Sunday, Oct. 31, 1993, at Lorain Community Hospital following a short illness.

She was born Sept. 12, 1943, in Lorain, and was a lifetime resident. Mrs. Zadorozny graduated in 1961 from Lorain High School.

She was a member of St. Anthony of Padua Church, Lorain. She enjoyed reading arts and crafts and fishing.

Survivors include her husband of 17 years, Harry C., daughters Mrs. William (Terri) Keller of Clearwater, is in charge of arrangements.

Fla., Mrs. Richard (Tamora) Jolly of Palm Harbor, Fla., Traci Cassidy of Lakewood, and Mrs. Luis (Linda) Zadorozny of Clearwater; sons Timothy Cassidy of Elyria, Thomas Cassidy of Jacksonville, Fla., Gregory Zadorozny of Elyria, and Daniel Zadorozny of Cleveland; six grandchildren; parents, Walter and Wanda (nee Metera) Mishak of Lorain; and brothers John and James Mishak of Amherst.

Friends may call from 2 to 4 and 7 to 9 p.m. Thursday at the John J. Gluvna Funeral Chapel, 3224 Broadway Ave., Lorain. Funeral Mass will be Friday at St. Anthony of Padua Church at a time to be announced.

In Loving Memory of KOVACS

father

11/2/93 MJS