ROGER VANDEUSEN OBITUARY

Roger W. Van Deusen, 79, of Gulfport, FL, passed away Wednesday, March 8, 2023. Born in Lorain, Ohio on July 28, 1943. Roger was the son of the late Richard K. and Virginia E. Van Deusen. He graduated from Lorain High School, Ohio Wesleyan University in Delaware, Ohio, and Case Western Reserve Law School in Cleveland, Ohio. Roger is survived by his loving wife of 55 years, Sandy; two sons, Christopher Van Deusen and Steven Van Deusen (Sophia); grandchildren Will and Daphne; sister Jane Lanigan; niece Kelly Denny and many cousins. Roger practiced law in Cleveland for 43 years before moving with Sandy to St. Petersburg in 2011. He loved sailing his beloved boat "Blue Jacket" in Cleveland on Lake Erie, and later in life when he and Sandy moved to St. Petersburg, on the Gulf of Mexico. He was an avid fan of the Cleveland Indians and Tampa Bay Rays, and will be greatly missed by his family and friends. A memorial service was held at Memorial Park in St. Petersburg, Florida on Saturday, March 12, 2023, led by Roger's cousin Beth Swenson of Brainard, Minnesota. Roger will be greatly missed by family and friends and his many Cleveland colleagues and clients.
