

Edward Michael Lubanovich

Nov 12, 2021 1:00 AM

Obituaries

Edward Michael Lubanovich, 78, of Seville, passed away Sunday, November 7, 2021 at Western Reserve Hospital in Cuyahoga Falls after a brief illness. Born on March 6, 1943 in Lorain, he was the son of the late Henry and Helen (Churpek) Lubanovich.

Ed graduated from Lorain High School and attended Kent State University and on September 18, 1965, he married the former, Nancy Joan Anderson, who survives.

nature and was an art enthusiast, having been an art major in college.

Surviving is his wife, Nancy; son and daughter-in-law, Eric and Beth Lubanovich of Canal Fulton; daughter and son-in-law, Jennifer and Richard Kreisel of Bradenton, Florida and two granddaughters, Valerie Marie and Karen Ann Kreisel.

His parents and sister, Joyce McGrath preceded him in death.

ADVERTISEMENT

There will be no services.

Memorial contributions may be made to charity of the donor's choice.

Murray Funeral Home in Creston is handling arrangements.

ADVERTISEMENT

CAVALIERS
Healthy Lonzo Ball wants to win a championship, B1

---

NATION
More than 160 people still missing after deadly Texas floods, A3

