

Race Relations Are Discussed At Delaware Ave. WSCS Program

Benjamin Fain, guest speaker, spoke on race relations when the WSCS of Delaware Ave. Methodist Church met in the church parlors. The Sarah Circle chose "Our Home Mission Centers and Race" as the program theme.

Mrs. Walter Young announced that the Cancer Center needs volunteers to make supplies.

A prayer group has been organized within the church.

It will be held every Thursday at 10 a.m. in the homes of church members. The members were urged to attend.

Miss Linda Nardini played a piano solo.

Special guest at the meeting was Rev. Jesse R. Monk, pastor of the Bethany Baptist Church in Elyria. He was accompanied by the Misses Bonnie and Mary Carter.

The Naomi Circle is sponsoring a "liquid and bordering party" in the church parlors on Nov. 19 at 8:30 p.m. The public is invited.

"Tis Christmas" is the theme for the cooking demonstration to be held in Ohio Fuel Gas Co. by the Rebecca Circle. It will take place on Nov. 21 at 7:45 p.m. This will also be open to the public.

The group is holding its Christmas tureen on Dec. 11 at 6 p.m. in the church hall.
