hristine Sedmos

olish,

cess

e missed cues. auses between usion of a large ricate material rnals together.

Lorain somethneeds - music rted from New igeles or even iyl disc or radio ied and worked one and arrange is show — songs orain and life in t yes, people in ongs as well as t flawless only work is required so few people mot it.

ulting to Cocco of his work to how were fter all, he's from be insulted if ritics do not ofessional

after all, of

rk was found by another a newspaper.

RIES: The will consider sea for school appreciators, other ad-clust a 7:30 light in the genda include of two 1973 orain library purchase of

(C: Citizens oir comments ant program tonight in umbers at 7 and claims, utilitien TOPPOW

Obituaries ....

Frank Raymond

AMHERST — Frank "Bill" Raymond, 82, World-War I Navy veteran, 519 Hazel St., Amherst, died yesterday at the Good Samaritan Nursing Home, after being a petient there one-month.

Born in New York, N.Y., March 18, 1897, he lived in Amherst 27 years. He was employed so an accountant in the Thew Shovel Rochring, Lorain, for 20 years. He was a member of the Lorain Fellowship.

Surviving is his wife of 59 years, Ruth (nee

Graveside services for the family will be held in Elmwood Cemetery, Lorals.

Dora Prince

WAKEMAN — Eastern Star services for Dora L. Prince, who died at St. Joseph Hospital, will be held 8 p.m. tonight, conducted by the Madeleine Chapter 204 O.E.S in the Gerber Funeral Home, 16 Corner St. Wakeman Cooper St., Wakeman.

T W O M O R E LAWSONS: Four men, including a trio and a ione gunman, robbed two Lawsons stores the weekend, according to police re-ports. The first robbery occurred at 10:41 p.m. Saturday at the store at 2973 G St. when a lone gunman walked into the store looked around and then demanded money from a clerk. A patron driving up to the store saw the robbery in progress and tried to lollow the robber, who was last seen castbery occurred at 10:41 wes last seen east-bound in a car on Colorado Avenue. The second robbery oc-cured less than an hour later at the store at 3135 Pearl Ave., police said. Three men en-tered the store and one celuled. pointed a gun at a clerk, ordering him to lay on the floor. He then ordered another. clerk to open a safe. The men fled on foot from the store.

JUST MISSED: A 17-year-old boy barely missed being shot last evening by an elderly Lorain man who claimed the youth was throwing rocks at his home. Police said the a bullet went through the boy's pant leg, barely missing the boy, who said he was sitting on the ground and mind-ing his own business.

PHOTÓGRAPHIC THIEVES: Two cameras, a lens, two motor drives for cameras, a color TV and stereo valued at $3,300 were reported missing Friday night by Wayne Long, 40, of the home through a EXHIBITIONIST: A 27-year-old man was arrested behind a house on West 26th Street Saturday after he exposed himself at the First Gongregational Church on Fourth Street and Washington, drove past seven red lights and eight stop signs and forced several persons and cars off the road. Police said he was cited for driving the persons and cars off the road. ing while intoxicated, having an open flask, resisting arrest, driv-ing under suspension, failure to control, fictitious registration and indecent exposure.

police reports. The wassess of the course th said thieves entered windown on the east

ATTACK RE Glassified Office Hours PORTED: An east blooder that frote, and my side woman and her husband said they were attacked by the large because the broken woman's two brothers woman's Iwo brothers outside their home last evening, according to nolice reports. The

Christine Berens

Christine A. Berens 36, of 3960 Case Rd.; Avon, died yesterday at Lorain Comunity Hospital after a three-week ill-

Born in Cleveland, Ohio, she was a Lorain resident for 35 years. She was employed at Glemby Inc., Beauty Salon of May Co., as a beautician. She was a member of St. Mary Church of the Im-maculate Conception, Avon. She was a 1981 was a 1961 graduate of Lorain High School and Northern Institute of Cosmetology. She was attending the Glemby School of International Beauty.

Surviving are her husband of 17 years, Gerald; sons, Daniel, Douglas, both at home; daughter. Kerri Ann, at home; parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Sedmack, Lorain; sister, Mrs. Wes (Pauline) Kornerman, Seaside, Calif; Brother, Paul J. Sedmack, Lorain, Friends may call tonight, 7 to 9, tomorrow, 2 to 4 and 7 to 9 p.m., at the J.J. Gluvna & Son Funeral the J.J. Glavna & Son Funeral Chapel, 3224 Broadway, forain, where the Parish Rosary will be 8 p.m. Tuesday, Rites will be 9:15 a.m. Wednesday in the funeral chapel and 10 a.m. in St. Mary Church; Rev. Arthur Egan will officiating; burlal in Calvary Cemetery, Lorain.

CLASSIFIED ADVERTISING 245-6901 AFTER 5 P.M.

245-5637 or 245-5639 til 7 P.M.

Telephone 245-6901

(Igrained ( populations

--times I days 61 as times 10 days 616 times. 20 days 621 solitional Stands of

John Molnar

John Motner, 68, of 4111 Columbo Lane, Lorain, died today at Lorain Community Hospital after a two-month illness.

Born in Steubenville, Ohio, October 3, 1911, he came from Pennsylvania in 1949. He was formerly employed at U.S. Steel Lorain Cuyahoga, Works. He was past master of Lorain Ledge 562 and an active member for many years. His other Masonic activities have included membership and activity in Mystic Chapter, Royal Arch Masons, Lorain Council, Royal & Select Masters of Ohio, and Lorain Commandery, Knighta Templar. Brother Moinar served as a District Deputy Grand Master of the 2nd Masonic District. He was past president of both the Lorain ast president of both the Lorain past president of both the Loran Blue Lodge Association and the Loran Scottish Rite Society. He had presently herved as Junior Warden of Eliadah Lodge of Perfection in the Valley of Surviving are his wife, Ethel; son, John, Troy, Mich.; daughter, Mrs. "Marlene Ray," Henrietta; four grandchildren.

Friends may call tonight, 7 to 9 p.m., tomorrow, 2 to 4 and 7 to 9 p.m., at the Walter A. Frey Funeral Home, 700 W. Erie Ave., Loraid, where Masonic services will be 7 p.m. tomorrow, followed by Christian Wake services at #8 p.m. Rites will be 11 a.m. Wednesday at the Hungarian United Church of Christ; Rev. Bela Bacso will officiate; burish in Ridgehill Memorial Park Cemetery.

More Obituaries Pages 6, 11

Public Newson