Ken was an avid racket ball player in the 1980s and he enjoyed crossword puzzles. He enjoyed cruises and going to Las Vegas with his wife Jackie as well as attending reunions with his fellow Marines over the years. Ken also loved all Cleveland sports.

He will be deeply missed by his surviving wife of 34 beautiful years, Jackie (nee Siegel) Brestovansky; brothers, Robert Brestovansky and Terry Brestovansky as well as many nephews, nieces, friends and his cat JoJo.
