

Dale R. Slaus

LORAIN - Dale R. Slaus, 67, passed away on Sunday, June 26, 2011 at Mercy Regional Medical Center in Lorain after a courageous battle with cancer. Dale was born in Lorain on July 20, 1943 to his loving parents, Anthony and Geraldine (nee: Takacs) Slaus and resided in Lorain his entire life. He graduated from Lorain High School, Class of 1961. Dale was married to Catherine Renee (nee: Easterwood) on July 31, 1965. He worked as a salesman at Reidy-Scanlan Furniture Store in Lorain and later retired from Marconi (Lorain Products). He was a proud member of the American Legion Post #30 and loved fishing and participating in turkey shoots.

He is survived by his wife of 45 years, Catherine Renee Slaus; children, Cathy (Steve) Albrecht, Nancy Slaus and Dale A. Slaus; sisters, Judith Ann (Donald) Kerpics, Lynnette (Tony) Rutkowski and twin sister, Diane (Richard) Danevich; grandchildren, Adam J. Rector, Alexander D. Albrecht, Ashlie E. Slaus and Angela C. Albrecht.

He was preceded in death by his parents; and brother, Allan Slaus.

Private funeral services were held at Reidy-Scanlan-Giovannazzo Funeral Home, Lorain, OH (440)

244-1961.

Memorial donations may be made to New Life Hospice, 5255 N. Abbe Rd, Sheffield Village, OH 44035 or donating blood to Lorain County Blood Bank.

Published in The Morning Journal on June 29, 2011