Dear Mrs. Mecham:

Thank you very much for the fine old photos of Darwin and Millspaugh that Mrs. Cragen just brought into the museum. They are particularly valuable because you have noted on the backs all the information about each one. Jeannette, the museum secretary, has been making cards for each one for the card file. There are seven photos.

Enclosed is the March issue of the Inyo Museums News Bulletin that I, as Director of the Inyo County Museums Department, edit and publish. I thought you might like to read a copy. It is printed and distributed to a mailing list of almost 600 subscribers and the list grows monthly. If you would like to receive this breezy publication of news about the county's museums and history plus a little bit of other things too, just mail two dollars to The Inyo County Museums Department, Independence, Ca. 93526. I might point out that this paper has nothing to do with the Association and Mrs. Cragen's Newsletter that you probably get, if you are a member of the Association. There was a need for county-wide news coverage, and it was up to the Museums Department to produce the News Bulletin.

Thanks again for the high quality photographs. We appreciate your interest in Eastern California Museum.

Sincerely,

Henry Raub, Director
Eastern California Museum
