Dear Eddie:

Your letter of the 23^d just came in and I will answer it at once. We are so glad to hear that Mattie is getting along nicely now and we hope she may soon be entirely recovered. I am pleased to learn that your cotton is doing so well, for I feared it might be a failure. It gives me great pleasure to read about your farm work and to know that you will have abundance of hay as well as corn. I would like to be with you to eat some of those new sweet potatoes. I am glad the young partridges are plentiful. I will send the
