IVANHOES RIDE AGAIN

Gippy Plantation - April 21, 1954

The age of chivalry is not dead and knighthood is still in flower in the Santee-Cooper area of the Carolina Lowcountry. The ancient sport of jousting has been revived by the Pinopolis Lancing Tournament Association which was organized in 1951 with Harold Harvey, Jr., as President. Once a year, as in medieval times, modern day "Ivanhoes" compete at Gippy Plantation in feats of horsemanship, and skill with lance, to honor their "Lady Faire". No armor is worn now and there is no bloodshed but the pace is just as fast and furious.

At the command "Charge Sir Knight" the contestant charges down the course full "Steed" ahead and attempts to collect a series of three rings on his lance. The rings are suspended from a spring clip on a gallows-like structure jutting out over the tract above the riders head.

The Knight who, after three charges, collects the greater number of rings, is privileged to choose his "Queen of Beauty" and other winners of other prizes are announced all as it happened in the days of yore.

Lord Berkeley represents the original Lord Berkeley, one of the 8 Lord Proprietors, to whom in 1662 Charles II of England granted the land known as Carolina.

The little page boy is wearing an authentic replica of a suit worn by Gen. William Moultrie at the time of the Revolution.

Mounted pages will be: Beth Lacey, Jerry Blackman, Margaret Bradley, Cille Baird, Mary Wilkins and Angela Williams.

Maids-of-honor are Brailsford Lacey, Leslie Gill, Emily Whaley, LaClaire Williams, Jean Stokes, and Florence Harvey. Judy Young will be a junior maid-of-honor.
