OUR NEW POLICY

The new policy of the BETHEL COMPANION, as discussed at the last staff meeting, is to make the publication self-supporting.

In order to do this, a small subscription fee of 25 cents a year will be asked of each family. A year's subscription includes four issues of the paper which are published quarterly.

Very soon, church families will receive envelopes for this purpose, and if all the envelopes are used, and dropped in the collection plate, they will contribute considerably in making our BETHEL COMPANION the best church paper on the south side.

Will you co-operate, Bethel? — We're depending on you.

MARION NEVILLE, Business Manager.

The Class of 1935—Confirmed May 12, 1935.

Another class picture has been added to our Multiplex. Our hope as a congregation is centered in the prayer: "Sanctify them in Thy truth." In the Catechism the question occurs: "By what means does the Holy Spirit work sanctification?" and the answer reads: "The Holy Spirit works sanctification by the means of grace, which are the Word of God and the holy Sacraments." One can feel reasonably sure that a member will remain loyal, and this applies to members more mature in years as well as to the inexperienced, as long as he or she uses the means of grace. Church life is realized by a constant and faithful use of the means of grace: "The Word of God and the holy sacraments."

The members of the 1935 class are as follows:

A Historical Meeting.

It was the pleasure of the new BETHEL COMPANION staff to meet at the pastor's home a short while ago to begin plans for reorganizing Bethel's church paper.

Our first attempt at reorganizing was the task of appointing a new staff with the following results: Editor-in-chief, Rev. C. Emil Bergquist; Editor, Helen Andreen; Associate editor, Laura Bergquist. The Business side of our staff will be managed by Ray Malmquist as General Manager, while Marion Neville takes over the duties of Business and Subscription Manager.

Before the evening was over, we were all pretty well enthused about the many new suggestions and ideas that had developed spasmodically, as it were. We even dreamed of what a glorious church paper our COMPANION might be with the right co-operation and loyalty. Thus, we feel that this meeting will be a historical one in the reorganization of the BETHEL COMPANION.

The anniversary number in October is expected to surprise Bethel members with its many new features. Features which we feel will make the paper what its name signifies. So, a pleasant surprise is awaiting your attention in October.

In the meantime, here is a hint of one of the new attractions—a "Voice of Bethel" column, to which we welcome all comments on church programs, work that our societies are doing, the BETHEL COMPANION, etc. Don't hesitate to send in your comments for this first issue. They may be helpful and encouraging. Send all contributions before October 1st to Helen Andreen, 5945 South Union Avenue.

Bethel Briefs.

Tage Johanson, 7800 Bishop St., has become a resident of Copenhagen, Denmark. We shall miss Tage at our Boy Scout Troop meetings and in our Bible Class Department. A farewell dinner was given the Johanson family by their intimate friends, the Malmquist family, 7732 Sangamon St., Friday, April the 12th.

The Southern Chicago District conducted a monthly meeting in Bethel Tuesday, April the 16th. Rev. C. O. Tolin spoke on "The Twofold Reconciliation." The large assembly room was filled with an appreciative audience.

In our general prayer on the Sabbath we intercede for the sick, the infirm. The following members have been on the sick-list but are now up and around again: Mrs. Claus Johson, 8045 Chappel Ave.; John Westberg, 8144 Green St.; Violet Dahlin, 8514 Morgan St.; Mrs. Anna Lind, 6727 Morgan St.; Wilma Westberg, 2340 W. 111th St.; Mrs. Axel Johnson, 5751 Richmond St.; Freda Blomgren, 5913 Parnell; Mrs. Claus Erickson, 7158 South Chicago Ave.; Mrs. Hans Bratlie, 7918 Throop St. We believe that the prayer of the church is efficacious: "Help and comfort the sick and the poor, the oppressed and those who mourn, the afflicted and the dying."

Let us include in our daily intercession Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Johnson, 7933 Elizabeth St.; Mrs. Anna Ahlberg, 7818 May St.; Edmond Larson, 6924 Morgan St.; Mr. August Malmquist, 9220 Racine Ave.; Mrs. Nellie Gustafson, 6136 Green St.; Gust Carison, 6009 Morgan St.; Mr. John Burgeson, 8241 Ada St., who have not been in the best of physical health.

Dr. S. J. Sebelius and Theological Student Wilton Bergstrand spent a week-end in Bethel, May 3rd, 4th and 5th. We enjoyed their fellowship and their evangelical messages. It feels good to make a direct contact with our Augustana Theological Seminary located in Rock Island, Ill.

The Southern Chicago District Luther League held its quarterly meeting in Bethel Tuesday evening, May the 7th. Rev. Herbert Swanson, the president of the Illinois Conference Luther League, was the effective speaker.

Maurice Johnson, 6548 Bishop St., has resigned as Scoutmaster, and the Scout Committee accepted his resignation with a decided reluctance. Because of conditions connected with his new position Maury felt he should be relieved. But to the deep satisfaction of the committee he consented to become a member of the committee and serve as treasurer. Maurice has served efficiently and faithfully the last seven years. And as he steps out as scoutmaster he turns over to his successor, Bror Janson, former assistant scoutmaster, a well-organized and trained troop. We're glad that Bror succeeded Maurice for he knows the troop from a to z.

Our Nursery Society's annual program, Wednesday evening, May 22nd, was all that could be wished for. The diversified program was replete with interest. The music, the speeches, the spirit of the hearers produced an atmosphere of cheerfulness and good will that bodes well for the cause of the "least of these my brethren."

Sunday evening, June 2nd, was a special occasion and a service that will linger long in the minds of our Bethel churchgoers. Rev. Ahnquist was the stirring preacher and our Choir rendered meaningful anthems. The center of interest was the dedication of the new green altar and pulpit hangings presented to Bethel by a devoted and Christian-minded member in memory of two members of the family who likewise were faithful Bethel members. In this connection we are reminded of two other sets that have been given the church. The purple set and the white set of altar and pulpit hangings have certainly added to the beauty of our liturgical service. The Bethel Church feels that the generation of today loves color and beauty of church surroundings. Today, through the generosity of these donors, our congregation, we feel, is ministering to the needs of our church folk, old and young, and when members give memorials of this kind, you may rest assured that there follows a deepening of interest in our beautiful liturgical service.

The Bethel Church desires to express to Edith Johnson, 7943 Morgan St., its deepest sympathy in her bereavement. Her mother, a member of St. Matthew Church, was laid away to rest Saturday, June 22nd, and our sincere prayer is that God, who is the God of all comfort, may comfort her as well as her father in their hour of loss and sorrow.

Just as the Companion goes to press we were apprised of the accident that befell Mrs. Charles Knutson, 6723 Aberdeen St. Just as she was ready to leave the Augustana Home for the Aged, Sunday, June 30th, where she had spent the afternoon and evening at the Midsummer Festival, she slipped and fell and sustained a fracture of the hip. She is resting comfortably at the Home, and we feel sure she'll be with us in a few weeks.

A number of men, responding to the call of the House Committee and Board of Trustees, with Gust Johnson, charge d'affaires, renovated the downstairs assembly rooms during the latter part of June. The congregation appreciates this splendid service, and our church through their efforts is now in tip-top shape. The outside windows of the church building and the parsonage are being painted. The exterior presents an attractive appearance.

Daily Vacation Bible School will be held in Bethel August 28th, which is registration day, and continue until the 13th of September. We have found this arrangement to be very satisfactory. The pastor will have charge of the Confirmation Class members. Every boy and girl entering the Confirmation Class in the fall is required to attend the postsum-mer Vacation School. We welcome children from 4 to 14 years of age to attend our Daily Vacation Bible School.

Pastoral Acts.

Weddings.

"And Jesus was bidden to the wedding."

On Saturday, May 18th, James K. Thatcher and Esther E. Johnson were married in the church. Mrs. Thatcher has been active in the Gil Girls' organization, and we congratulate the couple. Residence: 6808 Normal Blvd.

Saturday evening, May 25th, at 6:30 o'clock Fredrick Johnson and Margaret Johnson, both active and lifelong members of Bethel, exchanged nuptial vows in the presence of a large gathering of relatives and friends that had assembled to witness the impressive ceremony performed by the pastor and Rev. Walter Ohman, the bridegroom's brother-in-law, from Mayville, N. Y., assisting. It was a joy to unite in holy wedlock these two young people who by the way were born on the same date, confirmed in the same class and had grown up together in the Bethel Church. After the ceremony a delicious luncheon was served the immediate members of the family and relatives by the parents of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Johnson, 5621 Emerald Ave. The couple will reside at 3055 W. 62nd St. God bless your home.

Saturday, June 1st, Donald P. Pierson and Eleanor Quarnstrom, a Bethel member and a member of the Daughters of Bethel, were married in the parsonage. Congratulations!

On the 8th day of June, Orville Westberg, 8144 Green St., and Ruth R. Johnson pledged their troth before the altar at which the bridegroom had pledged his allegiance as a confirmand in Bethel. Only the immediate members of the family were present upon the occasion. Rev. Roger Oliver, Spokane, Washington, the groom's brother-in-law, assisted in the ceremony. Both bridegroom and bride have been and are active Augustana church members. Orville served as president of the Bethel Luther League, Bible Class teacher, and is now choir director in the St. Matthew Church. The bride has also been an active member in the Grace Church, Spokane, Washington. After the ceremony a luncheon was served in the home of the groom. Congratulations to this church couple.

Saturday, June 15th, Harold J. Johnson and Anna M. H. Larson exchanged nuptial vows in the parsonage. Miss Larson has been a member of Bethel for a number of years and Bethel wishes you both godspeed. Their new residence will be 5944 Carpenter St.

Saturday, June 22nd, Paul J. Koch of Crystal Lake, Ill., and Ethel Melander, 6728 Emerald

Ave., an active member of the Gil Girls and of the Daughters of Bethel, as well as being a member of Bethel, were united in holy wedlock at the same altar where the bride had been confirmed. The couple will reside in Crystal Lake, Ill. Hearty congratulations!

Saturday, June 29th, Wayne A. McDonald of Detroit, Michigan, who serves as a member of the Detroit downtown Y. M. C. A. staff, and Melba Newstrom, one of our most active Bethel girls, pledged their troth at the altar where the bride was confirmed and had communed so often. The ceremony was performed in the presence of a gathering that filled our spacious Bethel Church. The Choir rendered a beautiful selection, "The Bells of St. Mary's," and after the impressive ceremony a lovely luncheon was served the guests in the large assembly room, with Robert Johnson, a brother-in-law of the bride, acting as toastmaster.

Bethel extends its best wishes to both, and although regretting the departure of their devoted Bible Class superintendent, whose new home will be in Detroit, at the same time Bethel lays out its "Welcome" mat, hoping for an early visit.

It is God's prerogative to be. He is real; all else is shadowy. The proper study of mankind—is God.

Faith is reason at rest in God.

—SPURGEON.

Funerals.

On Monday, April 22nd, two Bethel members were laid to rest in Oakhill. Both breathed their last on Good Friday, April 19th, the day our Lord died on the cross.

The name of Peter J. Marker, 6549 Morgan St., a well-known church figure, has been placed upon our memorial records. Age: 82 years, 10 months, 2 days. Like the churchgoer whom St. Luke made immortal through the simple lines, "And the same man was just and devout, waiting for the consolation of Israel," so Mr. Marker reflected in his attachment to the Church of Christ the spirit of a church believer, one who waited for the coming of the dayspring from on high. His interest revolved primarily about the church and in his last moments he evinced a deep concern for the "building up of the body of Christ." Possessing as he did a rugged nature and qualities of character such as sound judgment and an ability to go to the heart of a matter, Mr. Marker earned the respect of those who knew him. We shall miss this member who was so solicitous for the Bethel Church. He felt as all Christians feel that the weak should become "full-grown" believers, and that aspiration marks the true believer. We extend to his sons, Hugo, Fred and Albert, the last named a Bible Class teacher in Bethel, as well as to his two brothers and two sisters our deepest sympathy. Services were conducted from the church, Monday afternoon, April 22nd.

The name of Mrs. Agnes Sofia Lindstrom, 1108 W. 59th St., has also been entered upon our memorial records. Age: 48 years, 7 months, 18 days. Her death came as a distinct shock to her friends. She passed away on Good Friday, April 19th. Two of the daughters, Agda and Alice, are Bethel confirmands. On her deathbed Mrs. Lindstrom received the consolation of the Word of God. A devoted mother and a faithful wife will be missed in the home.

Monday, April 29th, Mrs. Hulda Natalia Peterson, 5752 Ada St., was buried at an age of 72 years, 6 months, 16 days. Interment: Oakhill. To her family we express our Christian sympathy.

Thursday afternoon, April 25th, Mrs. Rosa Lunde, 667 W. 63rd Place, was laid to rest in Mt. Olive Cemetery. Age: 65 years, 9 months, 25 days. The pastor visited her as she awaited the last summons and pointed to Him who is the beginner and finisher of our faith. To the surviving members of the family we express our deepest sympathy. They are as follows: John, her husband, and the children: John, George, Helen and Elly. Two brothers also survive her.

On Friday, April 26th, Arthur A. Lawson, 8956 Bishop St., was buried at an age of 50 years, 5 months, 22 days. Interment: Oakhill. Mr. Lawson was a Bethel confirmand and leaves to mourn him his wife Emma who has rejoined our Bethel Church and his sister Alfrieda. God comfort the mourners.

On Tuesday afternoon, May 7th, June Yvonne Johnson, 6014 Peoria St., who would have been 16 years June 18th, was carried to her last resting place by six boy members of her Confirmation Class. An accident befell June, and after much suffering she passed away at the Englewood Hospital, Friday, May 3rd. She appreciated to the full the visits of the pastor who confirmed her and repeated the words of Life as she passed through the valley of death. She is mourned by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Emil Johnson, and sisters, Elmee and Venetta. Interment: Oakhill. God comfort the family.

On Wednesday afternoon, May 15th, Donald Walter Westberg, 7617 Green St., was placed in God's acre at an age of 5 years, 5 months, 12 days. Donald's passing was entirely unexpected and we can only say with the sacred writer who wrote the significant words: "The Lord gave and the Lord hath taken away; blessed be the name of the Lord." In our Primary Department Donny will be missed, for he was a thoroughly lovable child. To his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Westberg, and his brother Richard we extend as a congregation our deepest sympathy. A short memorial service for Donald was held in Bethel, Sunday, May the 19th, in connection with the "Youth Worship" hour.

We pause before the name of Mrs. Hannah Anderson, 5753 Morgan St., who like the Hannah of the New Testament "departed not from the temple, but served God with . . . prayers . . ." She passed away in the home of her daughter, Mrs. Minnie Gillstrom, La Grange, Ill., May 25th, at an age of 70 years, 4 months, 7 days. A genuine Christian, a believer who practiced prayer, a staunch supporter of her church, has passed away from our midst. Her works do follow her. To her five children we express our Christian sympathy. She will be missed by her niece, Mrs. Nels Olson, to whom Mrs. Anderson was as a second mother. She was buried Thursday afternoon, May 28th, in Oakhill. The service was conducted in the church.

On the same day, May the 28th, Peter John Sundstrom, 5627 Aberdeen St., was laid away to rest in Oakhill at an age of 68 years, 4 months, 27 days. The pastor ministered to him as he lay upon his sick-bed. He is mourned by his wife, Mrs. Sophie Sundstrom, a Bethel member, and his children, Mrs. Elizabeth Wood, Waldon and Gladys, Bethel members, and Harold Sundstrom, another son. Two brothers and three sisters survive him. God comfort the family who mourns his passing.

On Wednesday afternoon, June 19th, Mrs. Amanda Sand, 618 W. 57th Place, was buried in Forest Home at an age of 60 years, 27 months, 7 days. She had been ailing for some weeks, and we wish to express our sympathy to the members of the family who are Bethel members, Carl, the husband, and the children: Ethel, Harold and Arthur. The pastor visited Mrs. Sand as she waited for the dawn of the new morn. God comfort the members of the family.

Our Organizations.

Missionsföreningen.

sammanträdde till möte den 1 maj, då fru Charles Nelson bjöd på förfriskningar. Fru Roy Johnson läste Guds ord och inledde i bön. Pastorn höll den sedvanliga bibelförklaringen. Ebreeerbrevets första och andra kapitel lästes och förklarades. Fru Swanson avgav en intressant rapport rörande konferensmötet i Gary, Indiana, och tackade föreningen för tillfället som erbjöds henne att närvara som delegat.

Föreningen höll sitt junimöte den 5:te, då fru Klaus Johnson bjöd på förfriskningar. Fröken Hulda Johnson läste Guds ord och inledde i bön. Pastorn höll bibelförklaring över Hebreerbrevets tredje kapitel. Hulda Johnson läste ett tankedigert stycke ur en svensk tidning. Medlemmarna upplystes om att Hilma Levine har utsetts att vara s. k. "Missionary for a Day." Dagen som åsidosatts för "Prayer Day" är den 9 juli.

Julimötet hölls den 3:dje, då fru Carl Johnson bjöd på förfriskningar. En del av fjärde kapitlet och femte Hebreerbrevet genomgicks av vår lärare, och fru Gust Larson gav en intressant skildring av sitt besök vid synodalmötet i Rock Island, Ill., som hölls i juni månad. FRU CHARLES J. KNUTSON, sekreterare.

Junior Mission Band.

A birthday party for one of the members, LaVerne Lindquist, climaxed a most successful and encouraging season for the Junior Mission Band. Our Juniors now number thirty-eight active members, as compared with the twelve or fifteen members of approximately a year ago.

We feel that a greater enthusiasm has been aroused in our work, and some day hope to have a Band almost as large as Bethel's Sunday school.

Our meetings usually consist of some type of hand work, such as making posters, bandages, or sewing articles of clothing which are sent to the mission fields at Christmas. Moving pictures of our foreign friends, however, offer variety, and mission stories are always welcome as well as helpful.

The Juniors have their entertainments, too, as games and refreshments find a way in, and usually bring a happy close to an afternoon of working and learning together.

Here, real friendships develop among our young folk.

Senior Luther League.

Plans for our annual outing to the Dunes were made at the July meeting. This annual August picnic has come to be quite a tradition in the Senior League, and leaguers look forward every August to this opportunity of enjoying good companionship in God's great out-of-doors.

The league is also pleased to announce that its delegate to Long Lake this year will be William Neville, whom, they feel sure, will bring back to them an inspiring and helpful glimpse of the Illinois Conference Convention.

At the June meeting the Bethel Mirror staff presented an individual trophy to the most valuable player on Bethel's championship basketball team. The deserving young athlete was Sid Taylor, who most certainly earned the achievement for his loyalty, good sportsmanship and excellent basketball.

Bethel League also wishes to take this opportunity to thank you Bethel members who made our congregational dinner on May 9th a success. It's a pleasure to know that the older members of Bethel are supporting the League and its projects.

Dorcas.

Although Dorcas Society isn't planning any big events at the present time, our 2 cents a day per member is amounting to quite a sum, and we hope to be of as great financial assistance to our church as ever.

At the April meeting, Mrs. Bergquist spoke on "My Impressions from our Eastern Trip," and the pastor spoke on "The Power of Prayer." Our speaker at the May meeting was Rev. Kolar of the Normal Park Baptist Church. At our June meeting, Mrs. Bergquist gave us her impressions of her visit to the Synodical meeting.

"Ways and Means" reported that Mrs. Arthur Lawson had again donated a beautiful handmade quilt, which the committee decided would be sold, proceeds to go to our treasury. We are very grateful to Mrs. Lawson.

"Fellowship Committee" reported that confirmation clothing had been purchased for one of our Bethel confirmands. This is noble work!

Mrs. Charles Burgeson is planning an "Open House" for August, date to be announced later.

One new member has been admitted—Mrs. T. Carlson, 6037 Aberdeen Street.

We must also record the passing of two members, Mrs. Clara Johnson and Mrs. Hannah Anderson, who gave much of their efforts to our society.

MRS. A. EHRENSTROM,
Recording Sec'y.

Daughters of Bethel.

On June 24th, Midsummer Day, a typical Swedish festival was given for the mothers in Bethel. Swedish songs were sung and recitations were given by ten charming little boys and girls under the direction of Mrs. Anna Nordquist; a piano solo and recitation were given by Virginia Hanson; and moving pictures on "Children of Other Lands" were shown.

This occasion hasn't been the only good program, however, sponsored by the Daughters of Bethel. Each month at our meetings, some novel and interesting program is presented, and outside talent is often secured.

The society has disbanded for the summer months, but activities will resume again with even greater enthusiasm in the fall.

Incidentally, the proceeds from "Wedding Belles," the event of the season, which was witnessed by such an enthusiastic audience, amounted to $138.33.

VIOLET BOLAND,
Recording Sec'y.

Brotherhood.

The Bethel Brotherhood held its last meeting, until they meet again in September, on the night of June 17th, the Educational Group sponsoring a social night with a fine speaker, Mr. Irving Edgar, whose topic was "Conservation." Also some fine songs were rendered by Mrs. Walter Peterson and a demonstration of fly-casting ability by Mr. Bjork.

Group activities were as follows:

A dinner at Ogden Park Field House given by the Devotional Group on Friday, June 28th. Also on Sunday, June 23rd, the Benevolent Group and friends journeyed to Donaldson, Indiana, for a day of outing and joint worship with the Lutheran Church at Donaldson, for we took our pastor with us to meet the good folk of this distant church.

Rev. Bergquist delivered the sermon at their church and his message was very well received and appreciated.

The Brotherhood to date has doubled its membership since the first of the year.

LEON W. TIMM, Sec'y.

TJANARKALLET.

En kristen människas liv innebär en ständig kamp, där det gäller att hålla fast det du har, så att ingen tager din krona. Striden är en kamp mot ondskans makt i världen och i oss sjä. va. Segern vinnes icke en gång för alla, utan den tillämpas och vinnes dag från dag i vaksamhet och bön.

Varje levnadskall har sina särskilda frestelser. Detta gällde till och med vår Frälsares kall. Frestaren kan taga olika skepnader. Han kan uppträda i form av vänner, som smickra eller som betänka, icke vad Gud tillhör, utan vad människor tillhör. Han kan uppträda i form av ett motstånd, som icke skyr några medel. Han är allra farligast, då han talar genom vårt eget hjärtas böjelser. Kampen kan gälla trots eller tröghet, handfal'enheter eller hårdhet, oredlighet eller världssinne. För den ene är kampen svårare än för den andre, vilket människor sällan besinna. Stormarna eller stiltjen i en människas själ gestalta hennes andes färd mycket olika. Människors dom är ytlig och trångsynt, och det betyder för oss föga, att någon sätter sig till doms över oss. Det är Herren, som sitter till doms, strängare och barmhärtigare än människor.

Hur lätt kunna människor icke bedöma kristendomen efter våra försummelser och fel! Däri ligger en förvillelse. De som äga och bruka tankeförmågan, skola tvärtom döma oss efter kristendomen. Måste Guds namn mången gång bränna hett på vår pan-na, så skall det också vara ett tröstande och hugsvalande tecken på vår livsegenskap hos honom och den han har sänt.

Nathan Söderblom.

JAG ÄLSKAR DIG, MODER MIN.

Övers. av C. A. Lönnquist

För den kärlek så huld mig lät dagen se,

jag älskar dig, moder min.

För den kärlek, som följt mig i väl och ve,

jag älskar dig, moder min.

För din famn med sitt lugn i min barn-doms vår, för ditt bröst med sitt skydd mot all ängslan svår, för den hand, vilken torkade ömt min tår,

jag älskar dig, moder min.

För det hjärta av guld, som vart prov bestod,

jag älskar dig, moder min.

För din kyss på var blånad mot tårars flod,

jag älskar dig, moder min.

För din vård och din möda, som ej sökt lön, för din blick, som gjorde vår boning skön, och för allt vad du är, för din ömma bön,

jag älskar dig, moder min.

För den skuld, som jag aldrig kan gäl-da här,

Gud signe dig, moder min!

Ack, för svagt är vart ord, som min längtan bär!

Gud signe dig, moder min!

Tills mitt hjärta står still och förstum-mar min röst, skall jag bedja min Gud, att han fyller ditt bröst för var dag med sin himmelska frid och tröst.

Gud signe dig, moder min!

ANNA HOPPE, Milwaukee, Wis.

LIDANDET OCH MOTGÅNGEN.

Lidandet, motgången, katastrofen är ingenting i och för sig ont. Otaliga gånger är det ett maskerat gott. Sorgen har ett budskap till vår inre människa. Den som lyssnar till detta budskap och förstår dess mening, han reser sig stärkt och förnyad ur prövningen och kysser sina sår. Men den som slår döv-örat till och sluter sig i bitterhet och trots, på honom kan bibelns ord till-lämpas: "Den gren, som icke bär frukt, avhugges och kastas i elden."

Förmågan att öppna sig för lidan-det och förädla dess mörka stoff till guld hänger intimt samman med vår grundsyn på tillvaron. För den, som likt en hel del ångestpiskade livsvand-rare ser sin jordeexistens som en meningslös gästroll vid skenet av en snabbt slocknande lägereld, förebå-dande det eviga mörkrets inbrott, kan visserligen smärtan djupna till stor tragedi men aldrig bli ett språngbräde för de själsenergi, som skapa var-aktig harmoni. Livet reglerar icke sig självt. Endast för den, som tillkämpat sig övertygelsen om att sinneslivet sty-res av en högre lag, knyts banden fastare mellan himmel och jord. Den uppfattning om livet, som är nedlagd i orden: "Jag är en människoklyftans son, är härifrån," räcker inte som grund för en bräcklig människovarel-ses strävanden, även om den kan fost-ra en heroism som bär storhetens drag men saknar dess ankargrund.
