Nov. 15, 1917.

Dear brother Joseph,

Now
for a few lines to you.
Received your two letters last Sunday. Sure was glad to get them. We don't receive mail very often now, but when it comes it comes in heaps.

Glad to see you are working hard old top. Only thing to keep you out of trouble don't over work yourself though.

Thanks Joe for taking care of Grace for me. Some day I will repay you for it. So you like Frances pretty well I like her too so I will see my O.K.

away from all evil Joe.
It can be done. If you enlist you will rub
up a gainst more bad fellows than you will good. Stay clear of them and stick to the Bible and Christ and do only what he wants you to do. I hope you won't have to go.

Joe will you send me
one of those diary books.
You know the kind I mean.
The red covered ones with a number on the cover. They cost 35¢. The cover is a dark red. I think the number is 789. The Train or Boyton Store carry them.
Glad to hear O.P.
have good teams again.

Don't you wish you were back again to play?

Well be good and don't work too hard.

Your brother,
Dave.
