

Wednesday
July 21-1920.

Dear Joe:-

Just received your letter
this morning and you can be sure I was looking for it.

It was blue Tuesday - as you term it - but I got thru alright nevertheless. you ask why & how? Well there was nothing else to do.

Sorry to hear that Henning is worse and hope it will only be temporarily. What did Hilma say when she got the Linsen? Do they know of your engagement?

You may threaten to squeeze me so hard - but I'm from Mo. show me. You can't scare this bird as you say.

Still did you meet Martin's girl yet? Did you wish him all the luck in the world - and a better girl than you got?

You said I should be patient - It can't be did and you know it. Now consider yourself bawled out.

Monday night Belly came up to me and put his arms around me and said - "Gee dont you wish Joe was coming tonight - dont it seem funny - we wont see him for a whole week?"

Am going over to Julia's this afternoon with Mother so I thought I would write these few lines before I go so I can mail them. Tomorrow I guess we are going downtown.

What time are you coming home Sunday? If you come in time for dinner you know it will be waiting here for you. The folks are going over to Julia's in the afternoon to celebrate their wedding anniversary and also Gladys's first birthday so they want us there for supper.

I'll have to close with love
from your
Grace-
