

Belvidere, Ill.
July 14, 1918.

My Dear Cousin.

Well, dear Joseph and all, we are all wondering how you people are.

It was sure some shock to us, but we all know he is in a far better place than we are.
God will take care
of him.

I am sending you
a clipping in which is about David in the Belvidere paper.
With love
Cousin Elsie.

London
July 11, 1818.

Dear General

I have been very happy to hear of your recovery and all the more so
as you have been
so long confined to bed.

It was a great pleasure to me to hear of your recovery for I had been so long
wondering when you
would be able to leave your bed.

I am very glad to hear of your recovery
and all the more so
as you have been
so long confined to bed.