North Shore Scandinavian Male Chorus

The North Shore Scandinavian Male Chorus was founded in Winnetka in October, 1935. Its purpose is to bring to the general public an appreciation of Scandiavian Music in the mode of our ancestors.

We present not only the works of well-known composers but endeavors of the little-known composers whose works are creations of originality and beauty.

Our organization, just one year old, has steadily progressed and at the present time consists of forty voices. In our humble way we thank you and hope that our efforts please the music-lover of the north shore.

“Den store, hvide flok” (The great white multitude) .....Grieg
(Marshall Peterson and Chorus)

Like a thousand mountains covered with snow, we see the great white host waving palms before the throne. It is the army of heroes and saints, now worshipping in mighty jubilation in choir celestial, where angels dwell with God.

* * *

Suomi's Song (Saumen laulu), Finnish.....Pacius

The music of Finland has from earliest times been tinged with deep, tender melancholy. In it are seen depicted the origin of the people and their long struggle against the rigors of climate, the difficulties of tilling the soil, and the oppressions of other powers. In the present delightful composition the author has, in words as well as music, effectively voiced the strange and alluring spirit of Finland. We are listening to the voices of nature, the murmur of the deep forests and the roar of the night waterfalls. “It is Suomi's Song”! The voice of nature.

* * *

Varde (The Beacon).....Haarklou
(Solo by Marshall Peterson)

“In the dead of the night knocking on the door was heard ‘Awaken!’ The beacon is burning on the summit of the mountain” — and every one knew that an enemy was approaching. Beacon after beacon was blazing up and the men gathered in time to repulse the enemy.

In a beautiful refrain which the composer has scored for a solo, the poet (Per Sivle) goes on: “And may the Beacon ever be burning! Let it flame in every heart, and our country will always be protected.

“Hôr oss Svea” (Hear us Sweden) .....Gunnar Wennerberg

Gunnar Wennerberg (born Linkoping, Oct. 2, 1817, died Leko, Aug. 22, 1901), a Swedish poet and composer, was educated at the Upsala University. For many years he was a member of the Swedish legislature. As a musician he was entirely self-taught, and in 1847 he published his first composition, Frihetsanger (Songs of Freedom). This was followed by several works of which the best known is Gluntarna (duets for male voices, descriptive of student life in Upsala). He subsequently wrote an oratorio entitled “The Birth of Christ and a Slobat Mater,” and set the Psalms of David in a simple and melodious form for solos and chorus with accompaniment. The Psalms are universally popular in Sweden, and they are sung both in North Germany and Scotland. In 1867 he became a member of the Swedish Academy.

Landkjending (Recognition of land).....Olaf Trygvason

Olaf Trygvason, of royal blood, as an infant had to be taken away from Norway, due to the unsafe conditions at the time. Brought up in Russia and Ireland where he espoused Christianity, whose champion he became, tidings came from his country that his people wanted him back as their King.

The song concerns Olaf's trip to Norway, the land he was now to behold again. He enters the fjords, enraptured with the vision of beautiful nature, and bows in prayer. Olaf Trygvason was born A.D. 969.
