

GUSTAV V
KING OF SWEDEN

In Memory
— of —
His Royal Majesty

GUSTAV V
King of Sweden

1858—1950

W ords can hardly express the deep sentiment and feeling of loss of the members of the Swedish Club of Chicago upon the passing of their great friend who symbolized for them the glory of the Homeland.

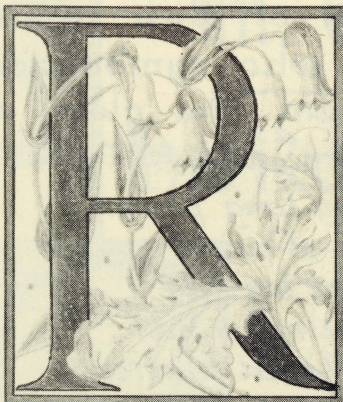

*"Hard schooled by long power
Yet most humble of mind
Where ought that he was
Might advantage mankind;
Loyal servant, loved master,
Rare comrade, sure guide,
Oh-our world is none the safer
Now Great Heart hath died."*

These lines, by a great writer to the memory of an American president, are poignant with grief and aptly express our regard for the high personal standards and moral genius for service to his fellow-man throughout the entire world, as exemplified by His Royal Majesty Gustav V, King of Sweden.

o live by his precepts and belief, we Americans shall help to preserve our own national standards because his life was devoted to and lived in the everlasting faith of Christianity.

He belongs not alone to Sweden nor to Americans of Swedish birth or descent; he belongs to the ages. He has written a timeless record of true humanity. We stand in silent tribute.

Resolved that we adopt and spread upon our records the foregoing memorial at a meeting of the directors in behalf of the membership of the Swedish Club of Chicago held the thirty-first day of October, A.D. nineteen hundred and fifty. We authorize the illumination of a suitable copy to be tendered to His Royal Highness Crown Prince Gustaf Adolf and all the Royal Family in testimony of our mutual bereavement.
