MINUTES

"TEN WAYS TO KILL A SOCIETY"

1. Dont come to the meeting.
2. If you do come, come late.
3. If the weather doesn't suit you, don't think of coming.
4. If you attend a meeting, find fault with the work of the officers and other members.
5. Never accept an office, as it is easier to criticize than to do things.
6. Nevertheless, feel hurt if you are not appointed on the committee; but if you are, do not attend committee meetings.
7. If asked by the chairman to give your opinion on some matter, tell her you have nothing to say. After the meeting tell everyone how things ought to have been done.
8. Do nothing more than is absolutely necessary, but, when members roll up their sleeves and willingly, unselfishly use their ability to help matters along, say that the society is run by a clique.
9. Hold back your dues as long as possible - or, don't pay at all.
10. Don't bother about getting new members. Let someone else do it.

... will be in charge of the ice cream and soft drinks booth. Gunborg Johnson and Karin Soderblom will take charge of the tickets and Karin Soderblom will be in charge of Bingo. It was suggested that the kitchen be open for business from 10:00 A.M. to 10:00 P.M.

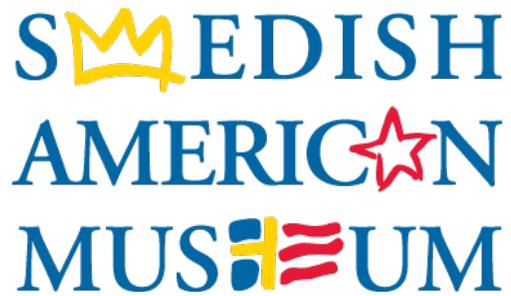

Karin Soderblom suggested that we have several luncheons next fall to make money and swell the singers treasury. Elsa Rehmberg suggested Verdandi Club as a nice place to have a luncheon as their prices are reasonable. She said she would contact Mr. Fredrickson. The Viking Sport Club was suggested and Karin Soderblom said she would inquire about their prices for luncheons. The last Thursday in September or the second Thursday in October was suggested. Each of the 5 clubs were asked to secure a raffle prize, preferably by donation and it should be of the value of $5.00 or more. Vivian Nelson will help with Bingo Booth.

Agda Plato suggested a Penny Social for a future party. Each Chairman will receive a sample card to be sent out to friends to advertise the luncheon and she will take care of typing and sending to their members and friends. Reservations will have to be taken so we will know how many are expected for luncheon.

The next meeting of the committee will be held at Karin Soderblom's home at 6234 N. Bell Av. April 25th at 8:00 o'clock - telephone Bri 4-2328.

Respectfully submitted,

Lillian O. Allen
