Dear Brother Joe: —

How are you old top? I am fine. Fine as a brick. You ought to see me trying to get up in the morning. Some cold weather we are having. You ought to be here and start jimping around the way we do here. We will draw our winter underwear in a day or two and watch me slip em on. I have a slight cold now but hope it will be over pretty quick.

Will you get me an album. One large enough to hold at least two pictures the size I sent home.

I have quite a number of pictures and I don't want to lose them.
Just a cheap one that I can carry with me. See?

Have you started to work yet? Pretty soft for you if you haven't. Your time will come too.

Be good. Love to you all,
Your brother,
Dave.
