OBLIGATION

Each member shall accept the obligation to lead a life of total abstinence from intoxicating beverages, and to promote public acceptance of this principle.

Furthermore, each member shall agree to support and promote the principles of Peace and Brotherhood.

Your Stewardship As A Good Templar

In order to have a dynamic and effective organization, certain principles must be promoted; practices that have been tested and found useful in all organizational work must be followed.

These principles and practices, adapted to the special requirements of the IOGT will make our chapters efficient and respected. They should be taught to all members so that they can be put into practice.

There are five main points:

1. Have definite PROJECTS for which to WORK.
2. Make meetings IMPRESSIVE and SIGNIFICANT.
3. Make members and visitors WELCOME and HAPPY.
4. Have constant ACTIVITIES and show some PROGRESS.
5. Strengthen and stress the BENEFITS of BELONGING to the IOGT.

Swedish Day June 15, 2003

Swedish Day is our main fundraiser for the year. It is also our best opportunity to reach out to the public with our message about a life without alcohol and other drugs.

To continue this tradition and make the most of this opportunity, we all have to share the work and the responsibility for this event. This means to come to the workdays on the weekends preceding Swedish Day and to help out on the 15th of June. For more information, please call Carl Gustafson, 708-877-1180.
