Dear David,

We miss you bad at school. I hope you will be better soon. We have been making all kinds of flags. On Saturday I was going to you house. And I met Lee, he told me that you were sick. So I went home. We have made pictures on the black-board you have seen one.

We hope you will be at school soon.

How are you getting a long? Its too bad you missed so much schoo We all hope you will get better soon. We hav several Indian charts u in front of the room.
I made two of them
You saw one of them I think. Charles made one of them too. We have been doing a lot of things, and we wish

you could be doing them too. I was going to bring my red, whit
and blue stationery, but I forgot to bring
it. We learned the poem of The Children Hour. I can say about a line of it but that all.

Dear David Thor,

I miss you very much. I wish you would wipe off that germ that keeps you back from everything. I'm going to get me a kite when school is out. I've got two nickels. I bet I'm going to have fun with it. You know what?! Well, there's going to be a show at the High School. But it's free. It's about baseball.
