Dr. V. R. Pearson

Dear Sir,

The writer of this letter received a ^{letter} from Sweden asking the whereabouts of two daughters of a former member of your church. Their fathers name was Carl Johnson or perhaps he called himself Charley. His wife broke away from your church and became a member of the Dawies of Zion City. A short time later she took sick and died. In keeping with her faith she refused to have a doctor. According to information I

Dear Sir,

The writer of this letter received a ^{letter} from asking the whereabouts of two daughters of a former member of your church. Their fathers name was Carl Johnson or perhaps he called himself Charles. His wife broke away from your church and became a member of the Disciples of Christ. I about time later she took sick and died. In keeping with her faith she refused to have a doctor.
