Dearest Wife-

No letter from my Dorling today - and it's blue Tuesday to boot. Nevertheless Sweetheart I am still your own hubby and very much in love with you. When are you coming home to me? I can't stand being alone much longer, dear.

Every day is just the same,
Breakfast, work - dinner, work, supper, sleep. Last night I was to the Brotherhood meeting and joined, too.
Got home a little after Ten and went to sleep as soon as I hit the pillow.
Tonight is Wesley Class at

Lill Soderholms- or rather Mrs. Walter Pflughaupt, (did I get that correctly?) Shall I or shall I not go?
you aren't going to be there, so why should I?

"Där du är, där vill jag vara." So why didn't you take me with when you went?

Attention to this Darling! The same folks that run Lake Geneva and Des Plaines Institute, are launching an evening winter institute. The West side has their local at Olivet Methodist Church, Adams Street & Keele Ave. It begins Tuesday Oct 14, and extends for six Tuesday evenings. The fee is 75¢.
Shall you & I enroll? Same credit system prevails as in the other places. Write & tell me what to do.

Do you know dear that you really mean more to me than any thing, everything else? Next time any traveling is to be done, we'll do it together.
Don't forget it. I love you, love you, love you, Darling! And you're too far away for me to reach.
That's the tragic part of it. Do you know, the evenings are getting colder now? Hurry home and make some evenings pleasant for both of us on the old reliable squeaker. It's so long since I heard you mother "ahem" the 5 minutes away that I'll have to learn the code all over again. You know that will never do.

My Boss Johnson is a fine fellow. He's better every time we have a chat together.

I don't know how soon he'll be given the reins in the department, but when he does, I'm sure he'll play square with me. He's white, Swedish and a Mason. Three pretty good qualities - all dependable.

Well Darling, good night -
Wish to goodness I'd see you in the morning.

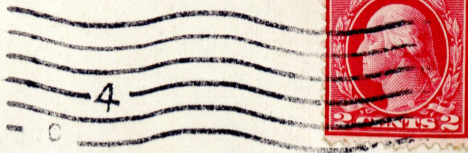

Regards from the folks -

And love unbounded from

Your lonely

Bubby Joe.

P.S. Latest Scandal - Gossip has it that Elmer & Corolla are engaged. -
But don't get excited.
