

The Saami People of the Sun and Wind

May 17 - July 28, 1996

Swedish American Museum Center

5211 North Clark Street . Chicago . 312-728-8111

You are cordially invited to the opening of

The Saami: People of the Sun and Wind

An exhibit dedicated to preserving the rich traditions of the Saami.

Produced by Ájtte, Swedish Mountain and Saami Museum in Jokkmokk, Sweden.

Join us for the exhibit's Midwestern debut at the Swedish American Museum Center on Friday, May 17, 1996 from 6 - 8pm

Swedish American Museum Center
5211 North Clark Street, Chicago
312/728-8111

Special Programs

Saturday, May 18 from 3 - 5pm

Running with the Reindeer! Bring you children, grandchildren, and friends to the Museum Center for a special exhibit tour, activities, and crafts. Come and learn about the Saami and their culture!

Thursday, June 6 at 7:30pm

Saami & Native American Cross-Cultural Discussion

Join us for a lively discussion about how members of indigenous cultures adapt to urban lifestyles. What are the similarities and differences between the Saami and Native American cultures? Participants include Dr. Myrdene Anderson, Dr. Charles Peterson, Albin Seaberg, and Sorrel Goodwin.

The Saami: People of the Sun and Wind

Co-sponsored by the Center for Scandinavian Studies at North Park College, Chicago.

Supported by grants from SWEA - International Chicago Chapter and

Illinois Humanities Council

