

received about the case, the husband worried over his troubles and finally took his life. Now they had two daughters and although I am a cousin of theirs I cannot remember their first names.

They must be about 35 and 40 years old respectively and might be married by this time.

An uncle of theirs has died in Sweden and left an estate which cannot be settled until they are found. In case you could trace them through the church records ~~please~~ have them write a (fullmak) recovered about the same, the husband married over his troubles and finally took his life. Now they had two daughters and although I am a cousin of theirs I cannot remember their first names.

They must be about 32 and 40 years old respectively and might be married by this time.
On one of their last days in London and left on a boat which cannot be settled until they are found. As one you could trace them through the church records there (full name) 2025.1.15B