THE SWEDISH CLUB OF CHICAGO

history dates back to 1870 during which time it has been known under many different names. It started in that year under the name of Föreningen Freja but in 1882 this name was changed to Svenska Klubben. However, in 1886 the members decided to make still another change in the name, this time to Svenska Sångsällskapet, and again in 1889 there was a change to Svenska Sångsällskapet Freja, which name, however, was of short duration. On the 13th of December, 1889, the club was reorganized and called Svenska Glee Klubben and under that name it was incorporated on May 13, 1891, and a few years later moved into its present quarters at 1258 North La Salle Street.

One more change in the name has taken place to date, namely, in 1923, when it was unanimously decided upon to give the club its present name the Swedish Club of Chicago, under which name it was incorporated under the laws of the State of Illinois on August 13 of the same year.
